

Trolley Takes Wild Ride

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3—This was the scene in suburban Eagle Rock, Los Angeles, after an unattended runaway streetcar sped wildly down the town's Main street for 10 blocks, jumped the rails on a curve, and skidded sideways into six parked automobiles, one of them brand new. A lone woman passenger on the streetcar received a sprained arm.—(AP Wirephoto).

Gambling Feud Ends in Death In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 3—(AP)—Luck ran out today for Benny (The Meatball) Ganson, 39, one of the kingpins, police said, of big money bookmaking in movieland. Two cruising policemen saw him stagger from his fashionable apartment house early today and fall dead on the sidewalk. Inside Ganson's apartment they found George Livinson, 43, Beverly Hills, an ex-Chicagoan. Both had been riddled with bullets. Det. Lt. Harry Hansen laid the shooting to a long-standing gambling feud. Both Ganson and Livinson were picked up last May for questioning in the killing of Pauley Gibbons, cut down by bullets fired from a moving car, but both were later released. Inside the blood-spattered apartment, Hansen said two pistols and two sawed-off shotguns were found—registered in Ganson's name. None was the murder weapon, however. Neighbors reported seeing several men flee the scene, and officers theorized that Ganson and Livinson had opened the door of their flat to men they thought to be friends, then were blasted before they could reach for their own weapons. Twelve hours after the double killing, a fireman found a .32-caliber belly gun and a long-

Vocational Classes on Increase

SILVERTON—Vocational agricultural students in Silverton high school number 66 this year, quite an increase over a year ago. Twenty-one freshmen are enrolled with 22 sophomores and 23 juniors and seniors. Leonard Hudson is the director. Second week of school is running smoothly with no appreciable increase in registration. A. B. Anderson, superintendent, reported Thursday. Enrollment remains slightly under one thousand but higher than any year since 1942.

State Condemns Boxes of Raisins

Concerns having any large amount of raisins on hand should keep them in a cool place, M. T. Madsen, state agricultural department, warned Thursday as he condemned ninety 30-pound boxes in different shops and bakeries. He said the raisins were unfit for human consumption. Madsen declared that virtually all of these raisins were being held for the holiday fruit cake trade. They will be fed to the hogs.
