Autumn Offering

Eggplant, Colorful Vegetable for Recipes to Bolster Meat-Short Menus

By Maxine Buren
Women's Editor, The Statesman

Eggplant, the beautiful purple vegetable that makes itself important in the fall markets annually, is now with us in full force and should be considered by the housewife.

There's much more in store for the eggplant than a mere frying into a limp slice; it is a versatile vegetable, with many possibilities.

Eggplant can be merely baked in slices after being marinated in French dressing and drained. It should be arranged in a baking dish and baked for 15 minutes at 400 degrees, and turned once. Cooked en casserole is one of its most popular roles.

SCALLOPED EGGPLANT
1 eggplant, pared and cut in 1/2 inch cubes
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 onion, finely chopped
3/4 tablespoon chopped parsley
Cook eggplant in a small amount of water until soft, drain. Cook onion in butter until yellow, add parsley and eggplant. Put in buttered baking dish, cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a moderate oven (375) until crumbs are brown. Serves 6.

Stuffed eggplant makes a dandy main dish, for it can be made to taste very much like meat.
BAKED STUFFED EGGPLANT
Scoop out eggplant with French ball cutter if available, dip in egg and crumbs and fry quickly until brown. Add some onions and green peppers to the skillet to cook until partially done. In the meantime, steam the eggplant shell until fairly soft. Fill it with the fried pieces and the other vegetables, season and cover with buttered crumbs, bake for half an hour or so until well browned.

Miss Heath Is Married

Of interest to her many Salem friends is the news that at a simple, but impressive candlelight ceremony Miss Delight G. Heath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellsworth Heath of Salem, became the bride of Lt. Henry H. Frye USN, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Frye of Washington, D.C., at Grace Cathedral Episcopal church in San Francisco September 27th at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Paul J. Burroughs played the organ music and Canon Charles Shreve officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by Colonel Ralph M. Barry. Her bridal gown was of traditional white satin fashioned with a full skirt terminating in a long train. The bodice was designed with a net yoke edged with pearl embroidery. The full length veil of imported tulle was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. The bride carried a white prayer book on which were placed a white orchid, gardenias and bouvardia with satin streamers.

Miss Genevieve Stuart of San Francisco was maid of honor. Her dress was of pink lace and she wore a tiny Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. J. Henry Moylan of Berkeley was best man, and the ushers were Clark Runner and Kenneth Barrick, both of San Francisco.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Heath wore a gown of powder blue enhanced with silver beading and a feather hat of blue and orchid. Her corsage was of orchids.

A dinner and reception at the St. Francis hotel followed the ceremony.

For going away the bride wore a soft blue dressmaker suit with a pale gold hat trimmed with blue feathers and orchid veiling. Her coat was of pale gold and she wore a corsage of orchids. The couple are spending their honeymoon at Carmel.

The new Mrs. Frye attended University of Oregon and graduated from Willamette university. She was a member of the Salem Junior Women's club, AAUW and formerly taught in the Oregon high schools.

After October 10 Lt. and Mrs. Frye will be at home at 1375 Sacramento street, San Francisco.

Rebekahs Plan Card Party

When the Rebekahs met Monday night plans were made for a card party for October 14 in honor of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Committee in charge includes Mesdames Emil Ojien, Pearl Nichols, Joe Cunningham, Lulu Wilson, Misses Laura Callison, Hazel Price and Dessie McClay.

Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. Irene Seeley of Omaha, Nebraska, and Mr. and Mrs. James Weirich of Portland. The 1000 girls motored to the IOOF home in Portland Thursday to present a radio to Mrs. Anna Ike, a member of the Salem lodge.

Reports Given To Auxiliary

The business meeting of Capital unit American Legion auxiliary was presided over Monday night by Mrs. I. N. Bacon, new president. Mrs. Stanley Krueger, president district No. 2, made her official visit to the unit. Guests were Mrs. Lena Hildebrandt and Mrs. Anna Napravick, Salem.

Reports were made by Mrs. James A. Garson, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. Merle Travis, Mrs. Don Madison, Mrs. C. M. Craig, Mrs. G. A. Gabriel, and Mrs. Stanley Krueger.

Mrs. Bacon and Mrs. Krueger, delegates from the unit to the National convention in San Francisco reported on the affair. They reported first places for Oregon in the poppy contest and publicity and juniors in sewing. Ties were reported with other states in largest percentage of unit histories filed. They gave credit for the showing to Mrs. Earl Andresen, local members who served as Oregon history department chairman.

Mrs. Travis will be hostess October 16 to the membership committee. The Marion county council will meet in Woodburn Friday.

First fall meeting of the Merry Time birthday club of Capitola will meet Friday with Mrs. Carl Carlson at 2 o'clock and Mrs. Dorothy Bell will be the assisting hostess.
