

Charming young newcomer in Salem is Mrs. Charles Pillette, who recently arrived from the east coast with her new husband to reside here. The couple's marriage took place in New York when he was a lieutenant in the naval air corps and she a lieutenant as a navy flight nurse. Mrs. Pillette, the former Mary Bergin, is from Derby, Conn. Mr. Pillette, son of Mrs. Eva Pillette of Salem, is with the Salem Air Service. (Kennell Ellis photo.)

WOMEN'S Society * Clubs * Music The Oregon Statesman SECTION

Dancing Clubs to Begin...

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

The formal dance season will get under way in the next few weeks when the clubs entertain with their first dances of the year.

Tillicum Club Supper Dance

Tillicum club will resume its series October 25, having changed from Tuesday night dances to a buffet supper and formal dance on Fridays. The supper hour will be from 9 to 10 o'clock and dancing from 10 to 1 with Guy Albin's orchestra playing in the Mirror room of the Marion, monthly through March. Frank Shafer is president and Al Loucks is secretary-treasurer.

Thursday Night Club

The Thursday night dancing club has set its first dance for Friday, October 18, at Woodman of the World hall, 284 North Commercial street. A change in names to suit the switch in contemplated.

Glenn Hoar's orchestra will play from 9:30 to 12:30. Refreshments will be served at the parties this year, according to Mrs. Milo Van Houten, president.

The committee for this dance includes Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Averill Reaney, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Van Houten.

Dinner Dances

Announcement is made of the schedule of dinner dances for the Subscription club, one of Salem's oldest formal dancing groups. The first is November 2 and the second a New Year's eve party in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel. Two other dinner dances are slated for March and May. Bruce Spaulding is president and Mrs. Breyman House, secretary-treasurer.

Town club plans to resume its winter dinner dance series in November, with the date to be announced later. The committee will meet Thursday night to formulate plans and elect a new committee for this year.

Westeria Dancing club held its first fall dance Friday night and the first Trotters club dance was October 4. The clubs meet the second and first Fridays of each month respectively.

The Bonheur club is announcing the first dance of the season October 18 to be followed by dances on the third Friday of each month through May, all at VFW hall. Harold Phillippe is president and Fred Humphrey secretary.

Faculty Club to Meet...

Mrs. G. Herbert Smith has invited members of the Women's Faculty club of Willamette university to be her guests at University House on Thursday afternoon for their first fall tea meeting at 2:30 o'clock.

Special guests will be the new faculty women and wives of new faculty members.

To Celebrate

The Woodburn home of Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus E. Austin will be the scene of an open house on Sunday afternoon, October 20 on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. The Austins have invited friends and relatives through the press to call between 2 and 5 o'clock.

Grace Bell Jones and Alpheus E. Austin were married at the Gervais Baptist church on October 14, 1896 and have lived in Woodburn since their marriage, where they have also maintained their business interests.

The Austins have three children, Lt. Col. Leland A. Austin, stationed in Peking, China with headquarters division, Mrs. Jay C. Allen (Ruth Austin) of Seattle and Mrs. John Kallak (Julia Bell Austin) of Astoria, Col. and Mrs. Leland Austin and daughters, Nancy and Sally, are now in Peking. The Allen's son, Lt. Jay Cook Allen, III, is presently stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va. The Jay Allens and John Kallaks will be here for the celebration.

The Austins are well known in the Willamette valley and Mrs. Austin is the only active member of the Woodburn Woman's club. She is also a member of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Founder's Day...

Alpha Chi Omega alumnae will hold a Founder's Day celebration at the Willamette university chapter house on Court street Monday night. The alumnae will meet for a dessert supper with the actives at 7 o'clock. An alumnae meeting will follow and the active chapter will hold a pledging service for their new pledges.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. James Walton, Mrs. Stearns Cushing, Mrs. John Minto, Mrs. William Linfoot and Mrs. Gardner Knapp. Mrs. Lewis Griffith is president of the alumnae. Any Alpha Chis in the city are welcome to attend and may call Mrs. Walton for information.

Leaving this month for Eugene to make their home are above, Mrs. Kenneth Barker pictured with her three daughters, Linda, Judith and Sue Ann. Mr. Barker has been transferred to the Eugene office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. as wire chief.

At the left are Mrs. John R. Wood and children, Allen, in back, Robert and Mary Belle, who arrived in Salem this spring to make their home. Dr. Wood, a dentist, is a brother of Dr. Charles D. Wood. The Woods formerly made their home in Parker, South Dakota and the past few years he has been in the navy.

Mrs. Meredith Huggins and her daughter, Jean, are pictured at the right. The Huggins family will soon be leaving for Hollister, Calif., to make their home. Mrs. Huggins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doolittle. (Kennell Ellis photos.)

Home Nuptials...

At a quiet home wedding Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock Miss Betty Frances Jones, daughter of Mrs. J. Frank Waller, became the bride of Herbert E. Pendleton, son of David Edward Pendleton of Eugene. The Waller home was decorated with white gladioluses and carnations. The Rev. Gilbert Newland of Amity performed the rites before members of the immediate family.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Waller. For her wedding she wore her white WAVE uniform and a corsage of green and yellow orchids. The couple was unattended.

A wedding reception followed the ceremony, after which the newlyweds left on a trip around Oregon.

The bride is a member of a prominent pioneer Salem family and a great-niece of M. L. Jones. She has been living in Eugene since her release from the WAVES and has been with the veterans administration. She attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Chi Omega.

Interesting newcomers are being welcomed in the capital each week. Directly above is Mrs. E. Brinton West and her two-year-old son, Brinton, who with Mr. Brinton came to Salem from Philadelphia in the spring. The Wests were here during the war years and planned to come to the coast at that time. They are living at 745 S. Summer street.

In the upper circle are Mrs. William S. Bodner and sons, David and Stephen, who are temporarily with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. Lee Wood, until they receive orders to leave for Korea to join Lieutenant Colonel Bodner. Although not a newcomer it has been many years since Mrs. Bodner has lived here.

Pictured in the lower circle are Mrs. H. D. McGee with son, Charles, and 17 months old daughter, Susan, who recently came here from Bismarck, North Dakota with Dr. McGee. They have taken a house at 340 Lancaster Drive and Dr. McGee will be associated with Doctors Campbell, Wulf and Clark. (Kennell Ellis photos.)

Fall Travelers...

Mrs. C. B. McCullough was met in Portland Saturday by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough, on her arrival home from a two months trip to Perry, Iowa, where she has been visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. L. Reed Chambers left by plane Saturday for Santa Monica, Calif., for a ten day stay. In the southern city she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilson, former Salem residents.

The Autumn Social Whirl...

Teas, bridge luncheons and dinners highlight the social entertaining in the next few weeks.

Calendared for this afternoon is the tea for which Mrs. Clarence J. Hamilton and her mother, Mrs. Rue Drager, will be hostesses at the former's home on Glenn Creek Drive for the pleasure of the latter's new daughter-in-law, Mrs. Douglas Drager (Margaret Bell) of Lebanon. The couple's marriage took place here during the summer.

Over 75 matrons and maids have been invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock. Nan Mishler of Portland will greet the guests at the door and the hostesses and honor guest will receive informally in the living room.

Presiding at the tea will be Mrs. Clarence S. Hamilton and Mrs. Harry H. Olinger. Assisting will be Mrs. Harold Olinger, Mrs. Ruby Mishler of Portland, Mrs. James Nicholson, Jr., Mrs. Robert Drager and Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst.

Bridge Luncheons

The John Minto home on Saginaw street will be the scene of two luncheons this week when Mrs. Minto and Mrs. Bertram Thomson entertain for a group of their friends.

The hostesses have invited 16 guests to 1:15 o'clock luncheons on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. Contract bridge will be in play following the luncheon hours. Bouquets of autumn leaves and fall flowers will provide the decorative note.

