Mrs. Busick A Bridge Hostess

Mrs. Harold Busick has invited a group of her friends to a bridge tea Saturday afternoon at her Court street home.

Twenty guests have been invited to bridge at 1:30 o'clock with the tea hour following. Assisting the hostess will be her sister, Miss Kathleen Phelps, who is visiting here from Portland. Bouquets of autumn leaves and flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bidden from out-of-town to the affair are Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond and Mrs. Joseph E. Harvey, Jr. of Portland and Mrs. Wayne J. Page of Dallas.

Benefit and Dance Slated

At the Salem Junior Woman's club meeting held Monday night at the clubhouse, Mrs. Charles Rabinoff of the Salem Women's club, and state chairman of the International Relations department, told just what the women's clubs could do in bettering international relations and cited specific instances.

Mrs. Roy Mink, president, announced that the club will sponsor "Rubinoff and His Violin" concert next spring, May 23, at the Salem high school auditorium.

Plans for the annual fall fashion bridge, to be held on October 28, at the club house, are well under way, according to Mrs. Calvin Kent, chairman. Tickets can be obtained from Mrs. Vern Robb at Millers or Mrs. Leland Sarf at Quisenberry's. The fashion show sponsored by Millers will start at ten o'clock with bridge and pinche in play from 8 to 10.

Mrs. Cedric T. Haney and Mrs. M. Walker were initiated into the club.

Mrs. Elmo F. Lindholm, chairman of the rummage sale, announced it would be held October 18 and 19.

Another important social event of the year, the annual Thanksgiving dance, will be held on November 15 with Mrs. I. F. Bryan as chairman. Her committee includes: Miss Lucille Satter and Mesdames Lawrence M. Fitzgerald, Lawrence Osterman, Howard Conkle and Bert A. Walker.

The following were appointed as Boomerang reporters for the next issue: Mrs. Howard Conkle and Mrs. Bert A. Walker. Mrs. Fred Gast and Mrs. Albert J. Walker will attend the 3rd district meeting at Oswego on October 23.
