Oregon Homecoming Will Attract Salem Folk

Homecoming on the University of Oregon campus this weekend and the Oregon-WSC game on Saturday afternoon will attract a number of alumni and parents to Eugene.

In one group will be Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vandenevnde, Miss Patricia Vandenevnde, Rodney Vandenevnde and Mr. and Mrs. John Steelhammer. They will be registered at the Eugene hotel for the weekend. Rodney is driving north from San Francisco, where he has been the past month, and will join his family in Eugene.

Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. H. G. Maison and Mrs. Velma Farmer will leave Friday for Eugene to motor for the weekend. Mrs. Farmer will visit her son, Ray, a Beta, and Mrs. Becke will be joined in Eugene by her son-in-law and daughter, the William Shinnis of Corvallis, for the game and homecoming festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huggins are motoring in Eugene Friday for the homecoming weekend and Mr. Huggins, a member of the alumni advisory board, will attend a meeting of the board that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks will motor to Eugene for the game and will be joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kern and Mr. and Mrs. William Swindell of Portland. The four couples will be guests at a pre-game luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Woodworth, former Salem residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk will attend the game and visit their daughter, Janet, at the Delta Delta house. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lochead will also go down for the game and join their coed daughter, Joan, a freshman. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simmons will be among other parents in Eugene for the game and homecoming and will visit their daughter, Betty-Gene, at the Delta Zeta house. Dr. and Mrs. William Mott are motoring to Eugene for the game and will be with their son, Bill, a Sigma Chi.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Allen will be among those attending the Oregon homecoming festivities and on Sunday will go further south on a fishing trip. Others planning to attend the game are Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schenk, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooley and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Bahlborg will be joined in Eugene for the game and homecoming by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crittendon, jr. of Oswego and Albert McBee of Roseburg. Mrs. Bahlborg and Mrs. Crittendon will visit at their sorority house, Alpha Delta Pi. The Crittendons will return to Salem Sunday with the Bahlborgs.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brown and son, John, will motor to Eugene for the game, where they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Bronk Williams of Toledo, who will return to Salem with the Browns for the weekend. Chandler Brown and his eldest daughter, Vivienne, will attend the game and there will meet the Robert Bishops and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Speer of Portland.

Miss Edith Moxley, a 1946 graduate, will attend her first homecoming and be a guest at her sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta. Miss Betty Childs will be on the campus for homecoming and will visit her sorority sisters at the Tri Delta house.

Mrs. Warren Baker will entertain members of her club at bridge and a late supper tonight at her Kingwood Heights home.

Circus Party For Billy Purvine

Billy Purvine, young son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, will celebrate his fourth birthday on Saturday at the Fairmount Hill home of his parents.

Fifteen of his friends have been invited to a circus party at 3 o'clock. A clown will perform during the afternoon for the youngsters and pass out favors to the guests. A decorated cake featuring the circus theme will center the refreshment table. A miniature circus will be carried out in the decorations.

Rites Read In Study

The marriage of Miss Ethel Garland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. F. Martin of St. Paul, to Donald Mott, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mott of Brooks, was quietly solemnized on October 11 in the study of the Rev. Robert Coulter, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, with the Rev. Mr. Coulter officiating.

For her wedding the bride chose a blue afternoon dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Attending the couple were Mrs. Nellie Varley and the groom's father.

The newlyweds are now at home at 624 North Capitol street. The groom, who served in the army, is now with the Salem Water Commission.
