

Bearcats Seek 3rd Straight In Mix With C of I Tonight

Sweetland Scene of Northwest Conference Big

Face to face with one of the key contests of their season, Willamette's Bearcats tonight tangle with the respected College of Idaho Coyotes in their Northwest conference biggie on Sweetland field. Another overflow crowd of between 3000 and 4000 will likely be on hand for the eight o'clock kickoff.

He was actually the series "goal" with his consistent inability to batter the Cardinal pitchers (that wound on the elbow in a practice game before the series certainly must have unmeshed his swinging gears), but don't be too mournful for Ted Williams. The visiting American leaguers Sunday told us that Williams' collection of $1500 per week for his syndicated writings on baseball in general, and the real payoff in that Williams has a "ghost" writer bang out the stuff for him, a la the daily world series pieces sponsored by Johnny Pesky. We've an idea of how Gregor's spotted the latter after daily chats with the ex-Silverton shortstop. But it's a dead cinch Pesky didn't get any fifteen hundred for his stuff.

Although little other than mention has been printed on it in Oregon papers and elaboration is certainly out (after all, the guy comes from Oregon). Shortstop Pesky's delayed action in the final game is also a member of the series bovidae family. Some of the eastern sheets aren't reluctant to place Pesky with the Snodgrasses, Wilsons, Owens, Lombardis, etc., as a full fledged brother of that distant fraternity whose members have fooled badly in clutch spots of previous classics. The hesitation was a catastrophic and costly move by the former resident of Silverton's McGinnis field, but chances are it will make a much better ball player of him for the future. It's a safe bet he'll never again be accused of caressing a baseball while an enemy is hotfooting the bases.

Gullie's 1947 Chores Won't be Easy
New name for the Paulus Bros. cannery—Home for Hibernating Ballgamers. Both Senators Kenny Wyatt and Ted Gullie are herding trucks for the firm at present, and when Bill Bevens returns next week from his barnstorming jaunt he'll be a third. Consequently all the sports babbles within the Paulus ranks these days isn't on football but how much fun it is to put pearls into cans. As for Gullie, he's finding ways to be a pennant winner. A certain high school across the river hires Ted to officiate his football games not only on the strength of his striped-shirting but also because his name can be advertised to bring in a few more admissions. The school's first game drew the biggest gathering in years and Ted spent a full half hour autographing programs afterward.

Gullie will be back in the Senator saddle again next season as skipper, but from the looks of current events the WFL front we don't envy his job. Many of the members, including the townies, intend severing relations with the soaring salary levels of last summer. More than a few of the higher paid standouts of last summer will not be with us in '47, consequently. Were all eight clubs in the league to do their cutting and slashing evenly it would be okeh. But the two or three (Yakima, Tacoma and Bremerton, for instance) who are willing to buy a pennant have to, will again be loaded with the more experienced journeymen and will be tough competition for the clubs boasting little more than raw rookies. And raw rookies will be about all the salary-slashing clubs will boast next summer. It isn't good logic to think that a ballgamer who got $300 to $400 a month last season will come back next year for $150 or $200. The WFL was bubbling with $300, $400 and even $500 men last time.

No Mr. Gullie's task isn't to be easy—unless the parent Portlanders decide games and pennants can't be won with Rookies. And if games aren't won next summer, you know who will be blamed.

Speaking of the Senator management, a substantial rumor had it that Vern Reynolds, the Portlander who played second sack for the townies last time, came within an unbobbed whisker of nabbing the skipper's job. A good friend of Bill Klepper, Reynolds was "highly recommended" by Klepper for the job just before Bald Bill sold out.

Dallas in Top WVLT Tilt
WOODBURN, Oct. 17—(Special)—Willamette Valley league football teams, geared for fourth-round play, battle in the following four games Friday afternoon and night: Woodburn at Mt. Angel (afternoon at 2:30 o'clock), Estacada at Canby (afternoon at 2 p. m.), Silverton at Stayton (afternoon at 2 p. m.) and Sandy at Dallas (night at 8 o'clock). Molalla's league leaders draw the week's bye.

The feature game of the round is the Krasoon field clash between the undefeated Dallas Dragons and the strong Sandy eleven. If Dallas is to continue as a titular threat, Bob Daggett's boys must get by the Sandy team. In the other clashes, Silverton will be highly favored to romp over Stayton, Woodburn gets a similar nod at Mt. Angel and Canby draws a ditto in playing host to Estacada. Dallas, Molalla and Silverton are tied for the league lead all undefeated and untied.

Warren Assigned Another Post
EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 17—(P)—John Warren, the University of Oregon freshman athletic mentor, had been shifted today to a new post of head swimming and assistant track coach. Warren, who's dipped into various sports fields during his decade as coach, will handle the University of Oregon football squad, but not freshman basketball or baseball.

Warren is now handling the Oregon junior varsity gridsters. During the war he acted as head football and basketball coach.

Keiser Retains Lead, Knoxville
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 17—(P)—Despite a run of three holes on which he lost four strokes to par, Herman Keiser of Akron, Ohio, fired a one-under-par 71 today to take a one stroke lead at the half way mark of the $10,000 Knoxville invitational golf tournament. Keiser, winner of the famed Augusta Masters last April, duplicated his 35-36 nine of yesterday for a 36-hole total of 142, one notch ahead of Clayton Heatter of Chicago, who had today's best round with a 69 for a total of 143.

Wolves After Bachman Scalp
EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 17—(P)—Reliable sources disclosed tonight that petitions seeking the removal of Head Football Coach Charles Bachman are in circulation among students at Michigan State college. Dr. John A. Hannah, college president, commented, "any such petitions brought to my attention during football season will receive no consideration."

slightly favored over Clem Parberry's Idahoans, purely on the strength of WU's 31-6 whipping of Linfield last week after the Wildcats had nipped the Coyotes the week before 14-13. The C of I's were classed as one of the league biggies at the outset of the season, however, so Willamette's task isn't expected to be an easy one tonight. The Parberries are known to be a much better club than the title and entry into the annual fall playoffs, Washington is but a half step behind Grant, by virtue of a tie, and could jump into the lead by downing the defending titlist tomorrow night.

The other outstanding powerhouse of the season to date, Hood River, is not expected to have much trouble in scoring its fifth straight win. Hood River travels to Oregon City. There are other games, involving a defeated, untied team, that will bear watching. Roseburg will try for its fifth win at home, playing Junction City. Unbeaten but once-tied Eugene is host to perennial rival Corvallis. McMinnville, three-time winner, enters with three wins, invades Astoria, and Columbia Prep and Parkrose, both unbeaten and untied, tangle at Parkrose.

League play also intensifies. The Blue Mountain conference will be back in action with Baker at Pendleton and Mac Hill at La Grande. In the Snake Valley league Emmett will be at Ontario and Vale at Weiser. Nyssa will travel to Burns.

In the southern Oregon conference Ashland goes to Grants Pass, and Klamath Falls to Medford. In Coos county, Coquille will be at North Bend and

Portland Clash Headlines Week's Prep Grid Menu

By the Associated Press
Grant high of Portland, defending state football champion, gets No. 1 billing in Oregon this weekend in a clash with the Portland runner-up, Washington. ## Bruin-Bear Tilt Tops Weekend PCC Grid Bill

Ukes Expected To Win Again

Ducks, Huskies Given Nod Over WSC, Troy

By Russ Newland
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17—(P)—Mid-October's football battles this week-end may well decide the west coast's entry in the Rose Bowl, come next New Year's day.

The high scoring University of California at Los Angeles Bruins, undefeated in three games, face the improved and rugged California Bears at Berkeley. Unless the Berkeley eleven turns in an upset, and there seems hardly an outside chance they will, Coach Bert LaBruceher's fast and powerful outfit will be racing downhill for the rest of the schedule.

Having clouted Oregon State, Washington and Stanford by whopping scores, the Bruins will be odds-on favorites to take California in stride. After this week-end the coast conference opposition consists of Oregon, Montana and Southern California. Performances to date indicate the Bruins should run away from all opposition. They have the speed, great pass catching ends, race horse backs and in left handed Ernest Case, undoubtedly the finest quarterback since Frank Albert south-pawed Stanford to the 1940 championship.

Washington, booming back after its defeat by UCLA, tackles shaly Southern California in Los Angeles. Another conference encounter brings Washington State and Oregon together on the latter's Eugene field.

Stanford takes on a rather weak Santa Clara eleven; San Jose State travels to Moscow for a game with Idaho; Montana and Montana State meet at Butte; College of the Pacific and University of Arizona match touchdown performances; Fresno State faces Santa Barbara and Nevada bumps into San Diego State in other far western engagements.

The Newland selections: UCLA over California; Washington over USC; Oregon over Washington State; Stanford over Santa Clara; San Jose State over Idaho; Montana over Montana State; St. Mary's over Fordham (at New York).

River Angling Said Improved

Willamette, McKenzie Portland Takes Good

NEHALAM, Oct. 17—(P)—Angling on the upper McKenzie and Willamette rivers in Lane county was reported better today by the state game commission. Anglers reported good catches on large yellow cassis and blue upright flies, with occasional good luck on single eggs.

Nehalem river in Columbia county was yielding trout on bait angling in deeper holes, and the same region reported good spinny-rayed fishing. Many streams, however, were too low.

Fishermen took good cutthroat trout catches from the upper waters of Lincoln county streams on salmon eggs. Salmon fishing there, however, was very poor.

But it was no more than expected. In his home town he never made anything but a success so why not in the big leagues?

No special celebration was held upon Eddie's arrival today but it was just the calm before the storm. They're going to give him the all-freest testimonial dinner Houston ever saw.

Houston Gives Dyer Welcome

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 17—(P)—Smiling, dapper Eddie Dyer, "the lefthander who thinks right," came home today to find Houston in as big a dither as St. Louis where he had just finished leading the Cardinals to the world's baseball championship.

But it was no more than expected. In his home town he never made anything but a success so why not in the big leagues?

Estey Pockets Divot Feature

Some 15 hardies yesterday braved rain squalls in battling through a Match vs. Par tourney at Salem Golf club, feature of the weekly Men's club parley. Leo Estey came in the winner with a 34-2-four up on par. Next was Tom Wise with 37-3-2 up.

The semi-final tussle in the championship bracket of the club playoffs, featuring Harold Olinger and Estey, scheduled for yesterday, will instead be played Saturday. The other semi-finalists, Jack Russell and Jack Graham are also slated to match strokes Saturday.

Club Pro Jim Russell announced that, in addition to championship play, a sweepstakes event will be held over the weekend.

Lucky Man!

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17—(P)—Lightning struck twice today for W. H. Croft, Jr., of Bronxville, N. Y. He shot two holes in one on the Wilshire Country club layout. Croft holed his tee shot on the 160-yard 10th and duplicated on the 140-yard 13th. He had a 76 for the 18-hole round.

Gervais at Mill City

MILL CITY — The undefeated Gervais Cougars come to Mill City Friday afternoon to play the winless but scrappy Timberwolves in 1:30 o'clock. Marion county B league football game. Gervais will be favored.

Ross, Belcastro To Meet Again

When Newly-returned Tony Ross flattened Pete (The Walloper) Belcastro in their main event at the armory this week, he didn't know he was setting himself up for something big along the Northwest wrestling front. Two-fisted Pete, strange as it may seem, is officially the Coast junior heavy mat king.
