LARCENY SENTENCE SLATED
The case of Edward D. Shockey, who yesterday pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge M. Page to charges of larceny and larceny in a dwelling, and waived grand jury hearing was continued until today for sentence. The two complaints charge Shockey with taking articles from a local hotel October 13 and with taking clothing and a watch from Frank Smola on September 24. Shockey's circuit court appearance followed a hearing in Salem justice court yesterday during which he waived preliminary examination on a charge of larceny in a dwelling.
