Grid Classic Will Attract Salem Folk

The Oregon-Washington State game in Eugene this weekend and the homecoming festivities on the University of Oregon campus is attracting many Salem people. Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand are motoring to Eugene for the game and will be joined by a group of their Coos Bay friends. The group will be entertained at a pre-game luncheon at the home of Miss Mary Mattley and Miss Esther Hettinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Nelson will spend the weekend in Eugene to attend the game and homecoming. They will be guests at a luncheon before the game at the home of Mrs. Helen Manerude. They will visit with Reed Nelson, who is president of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Another group of rooters at the game will be Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Siegmund, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Siegmund and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Kilian. Also going down for the game will be Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. James Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bown and daughter, Margaret.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodfellow and children, Joine and Robert, of Portland will be here for the weekend at the home of Mrs. J. E. Goodfellow and the Robert Dragers. The Goodfellows plan to go to Eugene for the game Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bennisson of Portland, formerly of Salem, will be among those attending homecoming and the game. Their daughter, Becky, will be here with her grandmother, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding.

The Past Noble Grand's club of the Rebekah lodge met at the home of Mrs. William Beard Wednesday. Mrs. Lydia Roadman of Roseburg was a special guest. The prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Neubauer, Mrs. Chalmers and Mrs. Mable Gardner. Assistant hostess were Miss Hazel Price, Mrs. Emil Otjen and Mrs. Victoria Stiffler.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Trindle, Jr. left Wednesday on a motor trip to British Columbia and other Canadian points. They were accompanied north by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kohls of Livermore, Calif.

WU Students Prepare for C of I Game

By Artie Phillips
WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY CAMPUS (Special)—Football weather is a welcome guest on the Willamette university campus this week as students prepare to cheer the team to victory in tonight's battle with College of Idaho. Newly chosen "Peeps," rally, cheer and yell teams, will don enthusiastic energy for the occasion. Pre-game Bearcat Cavern chatter places Rex Hardy, Jerry Mulkey and "Marvelous" Marv Goodman in the action limelight tonight. "Anyway," says Sue Ferguson of the rally squad, "They'll probably see action after the game if we don't win." . . . Manning controls in the sound ear on the field, Kappa Blaine Hanks and junior Wilma Gorton plan on-the-spot applause.

Sigma Tau's planning to deafen spectators with their "school spirit" include sophomore Bill Halsey and date Pat Waters, Sam Baker and frosh Arline Joseph, Bill Bonnington and Joyce McCracken, law junior Val Sloper and fiance Marilyn Nelson, former WU student. . . . Other spectators of the pug-in tournament will be Alpha Psi's Lyle White, Bob Woodburn and Fred Lewis, and Chuck Winkenwerder, making a twosome with Pi Phi Thelma Wilcox.

It is rumored that newly elected frosh representative, Travis Cross will import an OSC co-ed for the festivities. . . . Sara Ann Orling and Andy Jones, after nearly a year of duet-ing, plan to attend.

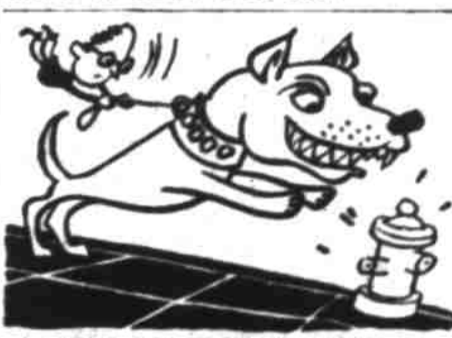

Pi Phi's will play host to the student body dance in the gym after the football game. . . . From the veterans housing colony Roy Burns and wife, Naomi, Dick and Betty Bailey, will come to enjoy the music. . . . Betty is a New Zealand specialty of Dick's. Mary East, wearing a sparkling diamond of mysterious origin. . . . and dancing tonight, we hear, with the lucky fella. . . .

Question of the week. . . . Did Thyra Jean Currey, WU grad of '46, really see two elephants in the Leslie junior high school gymnasium? . . . She claims her incredulous gym pupils will verify her statement. . . .

Dave Putnam, used to handling a troop of boy scouts, has been elected president of Alpha Psi Delta. . . . Experience pays dividends. . . . Spanish majors Janet Rogers and Pat Carter, finishing up their last semester of study before graduation. . . . half a year ahead of their enemy classmates. Pleasure is pursued on campus this year by the Thursday afternoon club, which meets each week for a trip to some enjoyable spot. . . . this week Margaret Allen and Pat Weinstein report the journey was made to Silver Creek Falls, which was probably dampening to their spirits. . . .

Extra-curricular studies took the class (six in all) to the football field, where, reports Alpha Chi Billie Grimm, the team showed squealing coeds all the angles including the double wing back and how to get most muddy.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, sr., received a phone call from their son, Jim, Thursday morning on his arrival in Seattle from Alaska. He has been in the army air corps and expects his discharge the first of the week. He was in Alaska for ten months. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips plan to go north to meet their son.
