

Loyal Warner Opening New Motor Firm

Loyal A. Warner, who recently resigned as manager of the J. C. Penney store in Salem, and long a leader in civic work, Friday announced he would open the Warner Motor company in a new building at 430 N. Commercial 1st on November 1, handling Lincoln and Mercury cars.

Associated with him will be Fred McKinney, formerly with the First National bank; Carl Snyder, formerly with the Valley Motor company; and George Foster, supervisor of the Union Oil Company in Portland.

McKinney is to be office manager, Snyder parts manager, and Foster service manager.

Musical Night To Be Resumed By Local Choir

The morning choir, directed by Virginia Ward Elliott, will give the first of its winter series of music programs Sunday at the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 p.m. These programs have been very popular in the past and many people have been asking when they were to be resumed.

Featured guest artists at this program will be a string quartet from Linfield college, McMinnville. In the quartet are, first violin, Virginia Byer; second violin, Patricia McManemy; viola, Shirley Wild, and cello, Carol Mitchell. They will play two groups of numbers, and in the first group are "Serenade," by Haydn-Pochom, and "Two Gavottes," by Bach. In the second group, "Rock of Ages," by Kriens, and "Gratitude," by Kriens.

Some of the numbers in which Mrs. Elliott will direct the choir are: "Prayer" by Guion, "He That Dwelleth in the Secret Place of the Most High," by Potes, and "My God and I," Latvian spiritual. The minister, Dr. Chester W. Hamblin, will give a brief meditation, "On Wings as Eagles."

Sunday morning, at the 10:55 service, Dr. Chester Hamblin will preach on the subject "Opportunity." Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, organist, will play "Benediction" and "Now Thank We All Our God" by Karg-Elbert. The choir will sing "The Silent Sea," by Neidlinger.

Both Parties May Nominate Successor

Both the Baker county democratic and republican central committees can nominate candidates to succeed the late State Sen. William H. Strayer, Baker, who died at his home there Friday, state election bureau officials announced following a conference with Attorney General George Neuner.

Parish Pupils Elect Bill Hill

Bill Hill is president of the Parrish junior high school student body, and Kent Meyers is vice-president, as a result of a general student election at the school yesterday.

Primary elections for the school's two parties, the Liberator party and the Student group, were conducted last week. Other elections yesterday to student posts include Betty Coley, secretary; Donna Pendergraft, treasurer; Jim Reek, sergeant at arms; Daryl Girod, assistant sergeant at arms; Dick Kinfeffer, and Harry Turner, yell leaders; My McFarlane and Jerry Savage, song leaders; Muriel Steustorf, Pericope editor; Janet Gaiser, publication manager; Buzz Covatt, eighth grade representative; Amy Girod, seventh grade representative; Mary Campbell, girls' league president; Sophia Polates, girls' league vice president; Lois Chamberlin, girls' league secretary; John Casper, boys' league president; Archie Elliot, boys' league vice president; and Bob Sogge, boys' league secretary.

Accident Victim Rites Monday

Funeral services for Hurley Jessie Pratt, 23, Hoskins, who was killed in a logging accident near Kings Valley Thursday, will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Monday in W. T. Rigdon chapel by the Rev. Dudley Strain. Burial will be at Lee Mission cemetery.

Iron-Aluminum Deposits Located in Northwest

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP)—Vast new deposits of commercially acceptable bauxite concentrate, used in manufacture of aluminum, have been opened up in Arkansas, the bureau of mine experiments said today.

Further aluminum reserves may be made available, the officials told a reporter, through use of an iron-aluminum deposit found in the northwest. The Aluminum Company of America, they said, is planning to establish a plant in Oregon or Washington.

Death Claims Mrs. Baker

Mrs. Mary E. Baker, 76, wife of Joseph H. Baker and resident of Salem since 1891, died Friday night at their residence, 545 Court st. The funeral will be held in W. T. Rigdon chapel at 10:30 a.m. Monday with Dr. Joseph Adams officiating and with concluding services at City View cemetery.

Salem WAC Works in China

Tech. Sgt. Helen Ng Muntayne, Salem-born Chinese and three-year veteran of the U.S. Women's Army corps, now is attached to the staff of Gen. George Marshall at Nanking, China, as secretary, it was learned Friday.

Miss Muntayne is the daughter of the late Chung Sing, prominent hop grower, and Mrs. Dora Sing of 904 N. Commercial st., and is widely known in this area. The WAC sergeant is the only woman in General Marshall's office, and writes that "every day is a working day." She also speaks of seeing Madame Chiang Kai-shek, wife of the generalissimo, and says that Mrs. Chiang visits frequently with Mrs. Marshall.
