FOUR FACE CHARGES

Four men of Hubbard and Aurora Friday pleaded innocent in Salem municipal court to charges of breaking glass in the street and an aftermath of a Thursday night wedding party celebrating the marriage of Melvin and Lillian Kertzman of Hubbard. Judge Alfred F. Mundt set their trial for 2:30 p.m. Tuesday. Police reported that Kertzman, Melvin Seifert and Gerald Seifert, all of Hubbard, and Melvin Trueschell of Aurora were arrested in downtown Salem for breaking empty beer bottles in the street. Police said the men earlier had been involved in a "brawl" in a local restaurant, but no charges developed from the incident.

When you come to think of it, the friendly confidence people have in Greyhound service is rather an extraordinary thing.

Most experienced travelers have come to look on Greyhound as much more than just another bus line. They know it as a warm, very human, very American transportation service made up of many extra things that make a big difference to the fellow doing the traveling.

The fact is that people like Greyhound because Greyhound likes people. The very heart of Greyhound service is the cheerful, personal interest Greyhound folks take in their passengers.

Greyhound remembers always that its job is to carry people... not mail, not freight, but people. That's why careful consideration for the welfare of every passenger is the basis of Greyhound policy.

Today, a mother and child, an elderly person, or people who have never traveled before can enter a Greyhound depot and be sure of getting safely, pleasantly to their destinations... cheerfully cared for all the way by Greyhound.

To GREYHOUND you're a PERSON as well as a passenger.
