4-H club members of Polk count were guests of Dallas Chamber of Commerce at luncheon today when special county prizes and trophies were presented and late all club members were guests of the chamber at a motion picture said, and gave the high wage available for the club member in the harvest fields as a possible reason.

Eva Jean Miller of Rickreal was given the Polk county healt Knower of West Salem, presiden ber of the county. Glenna Gage of Bridgeport won the chamber of commerce cooking club trophy Bobby Leth of Independence wor the chamber's sheep trophy; Betty Murphy won the chamber's sewing trophy, and Happy Sleigh ter won the chamber dairy trophy. Dallas Chamber of Commerce has given these trophies since 1937, and before that the Kiwanis club gave them.

Buying Noted in Corn Futures

CHICAGO, Oct. 18 -(AP)-A be lief that demand for corn will expand as a result of lifting of gov ernment restrictions on uses of that grain brought buying into corn futures today. Oats tended to follow the leadwhat action will be taken on flo ceilings was depressing wheat. Wheat finished 1/2 to 2 ce lower, January $2.00%, corn v up %-134. January $1.37% and oats were unchanged to cent higher, November 80%-3 Modern Miller, a trade publi tion, stated that, "Taking country as a whole, experts press the belief that the win wheat crop will go into the win with condition above normal."
