

Hart Handed Top Mat Test Tuesday

The balance of Owen's Tuesday card, to include two more Frankie Hart, one of the hottest pieces of mat performer to hit the Northwest circuit in months, according to no less than Watchmaker Elton Owen himself and any number of crutch customers who have seen him in action at the Ferry Street Garden the past two Tuesday nights, gets his big match on Owen's next show. The dynamic Mr. Hart who last week spilled Sammy Cohen but decisively, this time draws the nasty of 'em all, the "Gray Mask". The Tuesday special side will precede the coast junior heavy championship brawl featuring Villager Tony Ross and Pete (The Wallpaper) Belcastro.

JACK KISER one-fall prelims, stacks up as follows: Billy Fox vs. Karl Gray and Sammy Cohen vs. Jack Kiser. The Fox-Gray combine should be an all-clean offering, but the Cohen-Kiser setto will likely find Tiger Jack pressed to his best by the wily and quick "Red Devil" character. The Hart-Bloodum Hoodlum mix should be a dandy all the way. Frankie aspires to become one of the circuit's topnotchers and a win over the hard-headed masked butterball would certainly vault him to the heights. Mr. St. Face has yet to lose a fall in his Northwest engagements.

The Ross-Belcastro party should attract no flies either. Anthony, fresh from the Middle West, spilled Peter last week in a punch-filled and bloody excursion. This time Belcastro is putting up his championship belt—providing he still has it after a Monday night meeting in Portland with Ernie Piluso.

Burly Bucko Davidson will referee the Tuesday card.

Salem high's Vikings, after a week of idleness, this week return to the football front in the annual mix with the Corvallis Spartans. The Big-6 league clash is booked for the Spartan turf next Friday night and will open the second half of the Viking schedule.

But the big game of the week so far as local touchdown faithful are concerned is the Saturday afternoon Sweetland field meeting between Walt Erickson's Willamette Bearcats and the potent College of Puget Sound Loggers. That one will be THE game of the semester for the Methodists who are now deadlocked for the Northwest conference lead with their Saturday foe, Willamette, after absorbing a thumping at San Jose in the season's opener has come back to roll over three conference opponents, latest effort being a 27-7 win over College of Idaho Friday night.

Coach Loren Mort's much improved Salem high Jayvees go after their second straight victory this week in a Tuesday night game with the Sacred Heart academy eleven. The tilt is set for Leslie's lighted field at 8 o'clock.

Stanfords Nose Brones, 33-26

PALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 19-(AP)—Santa Clara's undefeated Brones scared the daylight out of Stanford today, battling the favored Indians on almost even terms until near the final whistle, when Stanford eked out a 33 to 26 victory. The Brones had the ball down in the shadow of Stanford's goal post in the fourth quarter and were forging steadily ahead with a minute to play when a heartbreaking fumble abruptly ended their last chance for a tie. Stanford started off raggedly, apparently still feeling their 26 to 6 dumping at the hands of UCLA last week.

Nine Prep Grid Clubs Stand Out in State

By the Associated Press

Half way through the season, nine teams stood out today in Oregon high school football.

Portland's Grant, No. 1 team last year, and Hood River, No. 2 in 1945, loomed the largest. Grant achieved the undisputed lead in Portland by downing Washington 20-7. Hood River scored its fifth straight win, defeating Oregon City 27-0.

Orangement to Take Jaunt into Palouse

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Oct. 19-(Special)—Back in first class physical shape after their weekend off, Oregon State's Beavers are now looking forward to their next Coast conference date, Saturday afternoon at Fullman against the Washington State Cougars.

Willamette JVs Smear Badgers

The weather wasn't the only thing that smeared the Pacific University Jayvees last night on Sweetland field as Bunny Bennett's Willamette smared JVs under the Badgers juniors under a 36 to 0 score. It was an auspicious season opener for the locals.

Jr. Highs to Resume Action

'Herman' Leads Gaels to Win

NEW YORK, Oct. 19-(AP)—Herman Wedemeyer, St. Mary's all-America back, threw three deadly passes today to lead his team to a 23 to 0 victory over Gonzaga, but a stubborn Ram defense curbed his running game with an 11 yard sprint, his longest gain. A crowd of 30,798 fans saw the game in the Polo grounds.

EUGENE WEDEMEYER, Oregon's Rose Bowl stock took a sharp turn downward today as an alert Washington State line hauled down a scoreless football tie. A homecoming crowd of 18,000 expecting to see Oregon wrap up its fourth win, saw instead a fumble-filled game in which the teams slid and stumbled mostly between the 40-yard lines on a rain-drenched field.

Wildcats Tie With Loggers

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Oct. 19-(AP)—Back breaks kept Linfield college from triumphing over College of Puget Sound here tonight as the two teams battled to a 6-6 tie on a soggy field. The Linfielders rolled up a total of 207 net yards and nine first downs while the Puget team netted 127 yards and but seven first downs.

Spartans Belt Vandals, 26-14

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 19-(AP)—The San Jose State college Spartans came from behind with two last-quarter touchdowns today to defeat the University of Idaho Vandals 26-14 in a wide open, sea-saw football game before 6,000 fans.

Baseball Gate Marks Broken

NEW YORK, Oct. 19-(AP)—Major league baseball paid attendance increased 63 per cent in 1946 over 1945 to set records in both leagues, unofficial but virtually complete figures showed today. The American league drew 9,666,421 compared to 6,002,368 last year, and the National league drew 8,946,234 compared to 5,372,819. Last year's totals were the highest up to that time.

Russell, Estey Grab Semi Wins in Title Go

It'll be Jack Russell and Leo Estey fighting it out next Sunday for the Saker Golf club championship—and the President's Cup. Club Pro Jim Russell has scheduled a feed for Thursday, though they had to play through a constant drizzle to do it.

Russell, qualifying medalist, topped Jack Graham, 4 and 3, finishing up with an even par for the 18 holes. Estey had a harder fight with Dr. Harold Olinger, finally downing the local dentist, 3 and 2.

The finale next weekend will be over the 18 hole route. Club Pro Jim Russell has scheduled a feed for Thursday Oct. 31 at which time the champ will be awarded the "Cup" at appropriate ceremonies.

Today a special sweepstakes tourney is on the local club's agenda— weather permitting.

Undefeated Grid Clubs Are Fewer

NEW YORK, Oct. 19-(AP)—Long runs characterized the play today as the nation's list of unbeaten college football teams was cut almost in half. Army, back at the top of the heap as the No. 1 club, shook Glenn Davis, its Mr. Outside, loose for 66 yards and a touchdown and then unleashed the Inside, Dock Blanchard, for 93 yards and another counter as the Cadets hammered out their 23rd consecutive victory, this time previously unblemished Columbia was the victim, 48 to 14. A 47-yard pass and run play, engineered by Bobby Layne, gave Texas its third touchdown in its 20 to 0 romp over Arkansas, the Razorbacks' first defeat. Sprins of 65 and 69 yards brought Iowa home the 13 to 0 win over Indiana in the Big Nine's biggest surprise.

Victory Costly One for Ukes

In Several Threats Star Breaks Leg; Cal BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 19-(AP)—Headed for the Rose Bowl and still undefeated, the University of California at Los Angeles Bruins outscored an underrated University of California eleven 13 to 6 today but only after the losing Bears had supplied most of the thrills for a crowd estimated at 65,000.

For the Bruins, pushing across touchdowns in the first and third periods, the victory was decidedly costly. Their star right half and leading ground gainer, Cal Rossi, was carried from the field late in the opening quarter with a leg broken just above the right ankle.

Trojans Pound Huskies, 28-0

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19-(AP)—The Southern California Trojans came back to life today to convert a one-sided, 28-0 win over the inept Washington Huskies in Memorial coliseum. A crowd of 42,507 watched the Trojans roll up their second Pacific coast conference victory against one defeat and remain in the running for the title.

Isaak Walton Meets Silvertown

SILVERTOWN, Oct. 18—The fish bill to come before the voters in the November election will be discussed at the October meeting of the Isaak Walton league to be held Monday, October 21 at 8 p.m. at the chamber of commerce rooms. The chapter auxiliary will meet in the Lions' club rooms at the same time, and refreshments will be served jointly at the close of the two business meetings. The social film "There's More to a Forest Than Trees" will also be shown at the joint meeting.

Game Commish Plans Project

PORTLAND, Oct. 19-(AP)—The state game commission announced today it was awaiting scarce materials to begin work on $450,000 project of construction which includes six new trout hatcheries and a large refrigeration plant. State Commission Supervisor Frank B. Lire reported the refrigeration unit would cost $125,000 and be located in north Portland to provide storage for fish food in quantities to assure supplies for the hatcheries. Hatcheries will be located at Wizard on the Metolius river and at Anna Springs in Lake county. Three will be located on Oregon coast streams not yet designated and the sixth will be in north-eastern Oregon.
