Following pheasant hunting in and around Nyssa the past week have been Mr. and Mrs. Norval Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harland and daughters, Carl and Marilyn. They have been guests of Mrs. B. E. Edwards' brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Long of Nyssa.

Eastwards Bound

Headed for the east coast are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, who entrained Saturday for Chicago on a combined business and pleasure trip. From Chicago the Hamiltons will fly to Cleveland and New York City. They will be away two weeks.

To Go South

Many vacationists are choosing the winter for traveling and will follow the sun during the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr., are leaving Monday on a two months plane trip to South America. They are flying south to San Diego for a short visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. (jg) and Mrs. William Earl Snell, before leaving by Pan American from Los Angeles for Mexico City on the first lap of their trip. They will make stops at important places in each country on the east and west coasts of South America. They plan to be home for the Christmas holidays.

Bound for Mexico

Mrs. James G. Heltzel and Mrs. A. A. Siewert are planning an extended visit in Mexico. The two matrons will leave Salem by train a week from today and will travel all over Mexico as well as visiting in Mexico City. Mrs. Heltzel's main destination is Taxco, where her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Heltzel, reside. The travelers expect to remain for the Mexican Christmas, which is celebrated for over a week. They will be away until after the first of the year. Before returning home Mrs. Heltzel and Mrs. Siewert plan to take a plane trip to Guatemala.
