

Miss Mary East to Wed

Romance has come again to the Pi Beta Phi house on the Willamette university campus. For Thursday night Miss Mary East, attractive brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. East of Salem, announced her engagement and coming marriage to Ronald Runyan, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Runyan of Portland, at dinner at the sorority house.

During the dessert course miniature nosegays were passed to the bride-elect's sorority sisters and on the white streamers were gold paper rings bearing the names of the engaged couple and on a gold wedding bell was the date, November 24.

The marriage of the popular young couple will take place here at the First Congregational church.

Miss East is a graduate of Salem schools and is a senior at Willamette university. She served as president of the Pi Phi house last year and was delegate to the national convention at Swampscott, Mass., this summer. She is a member of the Salem Spinners.

Mr. Runyan is also a senior at Willamette university. He served as an ensign in the navy and was released this summer. The couple will live in Salem while completing their senior year at the university.

Past Presidents Meet

The Past Presidents' club of the Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic held a Halloween party with Hattie Cameron as hostess on 1945 E. 12th Tuesday. A no host luncheon was served at noon.

After the business meeting games were played and members masqueraded wearing false faces.

Present besides the hostess were Justina Kildie, president of the club, Dora Pratt, secretary, Florence Shipp, vice president, Sarah Peterson, Mary Ackerman, Goldie Kyle, Bessie Martin and Bertha De Sarte.

The hostess was assisted by Clara McDerby, Lura Tandy and Blanch Stuart. Visitors were Lillian Caldwell and a cousin of L. Tandy. Next meeting of the club is February 12.

Mrs. James Bennisson and daughter, Becky, of Portland, have been visiting in Salem with her mother, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding. Mrs. Spaulding will leave for Portland today to spend the weekend with her brother, Clay C. Miller.

Mrs. M. B. Hodge of Portland, speaker for the annual observance of World Community day being held Friday at Leslie Methodist church. The meetings begin at 10 a.m., and Mrs. Hodge will speak at 2 p.m.

World Community Day Program

The Salem Council of Church Women's World Community Day program begins at 10 a.m. today in Leslie Methodist church with prayer by the Rev. Joseph Knotts. A business session and election of officers is to be held in the morning, council and project reports will follow, and a prayer and meditation and musical program will be given at noon.

Luncheon is set for noon, with L. Kathleen Phelps a special guest.

At 1:25 the afternoon session will begin. A worship service will be conducted by Mrs. John J. Trachsel, followed by a solo by Mrs. Clark Lethlin and a talk by Mrs. M. B. Hodge of Portland. Mrs. W. A. Gueffroy will dedicate "Kiddie Kits" and Mrs. Dudley Strain will conduct the installation of new officers later in the afternoon.

All interested women are invited to the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Wood, Roseburg, formerly of Salem, are leaving Saturday for San Francisco where they will sail for Honolulu, T. H., November 7. While in Salem they have been visiting with Mrs. Glenna Jayes, 147 N. 18th st. Mrs. Wood's mother. If the strike prevents the sailing of their ship, they will go by plane to Honolulu. Mr. Wood will continue his profession as a paint contractor.

Mrs. George B. Hager entertained at an informal luncheon at her country home in honor of Mrs. Marshall Thompson (Evelyn Ross) and Mrs. Hubert du-Bois Lewis. Mrs. Thompson is enroute to Bremerton to join Commander Thompson. Mrs. Lewis is living in Salem while Colonel Lewis is on duty overseas.

Among those attending the OSC-Stanford game on Saturday will be Mr. and Mrs. William J. Beard, who will motor down to be guests of their son, Willford, a student at Oregon State.

Nuptials Are Read at Church

The night Memorial church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Barbara Zahler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Zahler of Silverton to James William Lockard, son of Mrs. Warren Pohle, on October 26.

The Rev. Lewis White officiated at the rites before a setting of pink and white chrysanthemums. Richard Smart sang and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell was the organist. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a grey tulle with black hat and accessories and carried a white Bible marked with an orchid. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Miss Naomi Zahler was her sister's only attendant. She also wore a tulle and carried a fan shaped bouquet of pink roses and pink and white bouvardia.

Robert Prime stood with the groom as best man and ushers were the bride's brothers, Mel and Arthur Zahler.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Zahler chose a black gown with gold bead trim and corsage of red roses. Mrs. Pohle attended her son's marriage in black dress enhanced with steel cut bulge beads. Her accessories were black and her flowers were red carnations.

A reception followed in the fireplace room. Mrs. John Andrews cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Frank V. Prime, sr., presided at the coffee urn.

After a trip to the coast the newlyweds will be at home at 1465 North Cottage st. The bride attended Silverton schools and has been supervisor at the Silverton Telephone company. Her husband attended Salem schools and is employed by the City of Salem. He served in the coast guard for five years, both in Alaska and the South Pacific.

New Babies Welcomed

Arrival of three new babies is welcome news in the capital today.

To Mr. and Mrs. W. Vernon Gilmore go congratulations on the birth of a son, Vernon Gibson, on Wednesday at the Salem General hospital. The little boy has an older sister, Patricia.

The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Hugh Gilmore and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gibson of Portland. The Gilmore recently returned to Salem, following his release from the navy. He is physical director of the Salem public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Judson (Guinevere Wood) are the parents of a little girl born on Wednesday at the Salem General hospital. This is their first child and she is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood.

From Portland comes news of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hill (Edith Glaisyer) on Wednesday night at the Wilcox Memorial hospital.

The eight pound girl is the first child of the Hills and she is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Glaisyer, sr. of Salem.

Mrs. Melinda Cassingham of San Jose, Calif., has been visiting in the capital with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Rundlett and Mrs. M. A. Barber. The visitor was enroute south following a stay in Canada.
