Briefs Requested

Judge Duncan ordered that defendants file briefs on their arguments within a week and that plaintiffs file answering briefs within the seven days following defendants' filing. The suit was brought to court by Henry B. Koehler, owner of several Salem houses and apartments, on October 1, the day OPA rent control became effective in this area.

In yesterday's hearing of arguments, Howard Bergman and Francis Harrington, OPA attorneys, argued before a crowded courtreom in support of their main contentions that the complaint did stitute a suit and that the local circuit court was without jurisdiction over the suit matter.
