

Settlement School Exhibit

Monday, November 18 has been set as the date for the annual Pi Beta Phi Settlement School Arrowcraft exhibit. Members of the Nancy Black Wallace alumnae club will be hostesses and the affair will be held at the home of Mrs. James T. Brand on North Summer street starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Plans were for the affair were completed at the monthly meeting of the alumnae group Thursday night at the chapter house. Mrs. John Hughes is chairman of the display with Mrs. John McCullough assisting. All alumnae, mothers, actives and interested persons are invited to attend. All kinds of weaving and hand wrought silver jewelry have arrived from the Settlement School at Gatlinburg, Tenn. for the event. Pi Beta Phi maintains the school of which Mrs. G. Herbert Smith is a director.

Mrs. Elbert W. Roberts presided at the business session after which refreshments were served. Hostesses were Mesdames Joseph M. Devers, Jr., Kenneth G. Manning, Charles Huggins, P. D. Quisenberry, Lowell Pearson and Miss Mary Jean Huston.

Chapter AB, FEO, will meet for dinner at Nohlgren's tonight at 6:30 o'clock to honor Mrs. B. P. McElveny, state officer. After the dinner a business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Bates.
