Sneak Play Sets Up Lone Score In Sloshy, Hard-Fought Fray

Going into the annual inter-city series as the underdog, Parrish junior high Pioneers last night rose up and knocked the oddsmakers for a loop as they sloshed and swam to a 7-0 win over Bob

Keuscher's Leslie Missionaries in a fumble-infested tilt on Sweetland field. Thus, in the 32nd meeting between the north and south enders, the Pioneers have walked off with the decisions in 27 in-dirt effort that paid off for Men-tor Bob Metzger's lads after the two clubs had slid and fought with pretty much frustration through the initial three quarters, It was Center Tom Sodeman who set the score up when he busted through center for nine yards to the Leslie one on a controversial play in which Quarterback George Frederickson handed him the oval after the snap-back. From the one Right Half Dale Olson, who was quite some ball packer during the evening, skirted his left end for that all important six points. The touchdown came eight minutes into the final period. Olson made the conversion on a buck.

In the opening period Leslie dominated play as the clubs tried to accustom themselves to the cozy going. Indicative of the treacherous footing, Leslie garnered one first down in the initial stanza while the Pioneers managed none. The Missionaries reached the Pioneer 25 in the closing minutes of the opening frame, but a pass interception stopped them.

The second quarter was a story of fumbles and impotent attack. Leslie was dealt a sharp blow when Jim Moore, the hard-running halfback, was injured midway of the period-and although he got back in the game later, his tory, coupled with Hood River's effectiveness was cut down, For 14-7, victory over Medford tomost of the way it was evident that Moore and Olson were the ace-in-the-holes of their teams game here next Thursday with offense. Last Full Day of '46 Football Sees Crucial Struggles

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 -(A) Bowl bids and conference titles share top billing with traditional contests of the Harvard-Yale class tomorrow as the college football season hits its climax on the last full day of the 1946 campaign. California tops the list with the Pacific coast title game between unbeaten, untied

UCLA and Southern California. The eastern Rose Bowl spot, that probably would have gone to Army if the Big Nine hadn't agreed to send its champion, can be clinched by an Illinois victory over a Northwestern eleven that once had designs on the same crown. Michigan could take the Big Nine championship by downing Ohio State at Co-

ranks of Bowl speculation, is idle until its Nov. 30 date with Navy, and Notre Dame, the No. 2 team of the nation in the letest ratings, travels to New Oreans for an intersectional joust with Tulane, Georgia, with UCLA the only major perfect record club, has a "breather" in Chattanooga to prepare for its important date with Georgia Tech next Saturday.
