

Jean Post Married Friday

The chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Jean Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Post, and Clark L. Carlton, son of Mrs. Nell C. Carlton of Medford, on Friday night at 8 o'clock. The Rev. George H. Swift officiated at the nuptials. Miss Patricia Kerber sang before the ceremony and Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist. The altar was decorated with vases of white chrysanthemums flanked by white tapers. Mr. Post gave his daughter in marriage. For her wedding she chose a smart black and chrome grey dressmaker suit. The grey jacket was adorned with black velvet collars and cuffs edged in satche braid. She wore a black felt hat trimmed in gold sequins and veiling and carried a white prayer book marked with a white orchid and a shower of bouvardia. Miss Jean Post was her twin sister's only attendant. She wore an aqua wool dress embellished with sequins on the bodice and cap sleeves. Her hat and accessories were black. Her corsage was of pink Cecil Brunner roses and bouvardia.

Teg Cordon stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Leslie Leffler and David Eppelsheimer of Portland. For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Post wore a black suit trimmed in gold buttons and a black hat with gold feathers. Her corsage was of rapture roses and white carnations. Mrs. Carlton attended her son's marriage in a black suit with matching accessories and her flowers were roses and carnations.

A wedding reception in honor of the newlyweds was held at the Post home on Buuff avenue. Mrs. Robert Thatcher and Mrs. Howard Post presided at the urns and Mrs. Russell Beutler cut the bride's cake. Serving were Miss Wilma Noyes, Miss Gwendolyn Boyer and Mrs. John O'Leary. Miss Shirley Post and Miss Alice Adams were in charge of the gift room and Miss Charlotte Post passed the dream cakes. Mrs. Lester Leffler passed the guest book. The couple will live in Corvallis while he is attending Oregon State college.

Hutchinsons Honored at Reception

Members of the First Congregational church are entertaining with an informal reception tonight in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert A. Hutchinson of Seattle, formerly of Salem, who will be in the capital for the weekend. The affair will be held at the North Capital street residence of the Rev. and Mrs. Seth Huntington. Rev. Hutchinson was former pastor of the First Congregational church. All church and town friends of the couple are invited to call after 8 o'clock. Mingling with the guests in the living room will be Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. C. E. Stricklin, Mrs. E. J. Donnell and Mrs. Eric Butler.

Mrs. Frank W. Durbin and Mrs. L. H. McMahan will preside at the coffee urns and Mrs. Mabel Powers and Miss Lulu King will cut the cake. Assisting in the dining room will be Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. E. G.

Ricketts, Mrs. F. D. Kibbe and Miss Nellie Mitchell. Mrs. Richard D. Slater is in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Artistic Outlet

Bread Making Substitutes for Cake Baking During Sugarless Times

Perhaps you are the kind of a housewife who likes to work off artistic steam by fancy cooking. Was a time that a woman, getting into an inventive or artistic state of mind satisfied it by baking up a cake or batch of fancy cookies. Nowadays we don't do those things.

But there is a lot of satisfaction in making fancy hot breads or yeast breads. Ample chance may be found for artistic endeavor, and usually there's a ready and appreciative market in the family for fancy breads.

I once knew a woman who could make a batch of lightbread dough into 12 different fancy breads. She numbered twists, braids, cinnamon rolls, fruit breads, nut wreaths and butterhorns in her culinary repertoire.

But let's look at hot breads today.

TWIN MOUNTAIN MUFFINS

2 cups flour
1 cup milk
1/4 cup shortening
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg

Sift dry ingredients in a bowl, add liquids and melted fat. Stir to mix. Bake in muffin tins at 375 for 25 minutes. Here's a nice breakfast bread, takes a little sugar but a good treat for company.

ALLIE'S COFFEE BREAD

2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
3/4 cup milk
4 tablespoons melted shortening
1 egg
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Sift dry ingredients, add milk to eggs and add to first mixture. Spread in a shallow pan. Spread with

TOPPING:

2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon cinnamon
3 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons butter

Cream together. Bake at 375 for 25 minutes.
