OSC Favored Over Huskies In Coast Grid Final Today

The ballyhoo experts played up the Southern Oregon College-Central Washington Thanksgiving day tussle at Ashland as a behindthe-scenes fight between Al Simpson and Johnny Londahl for a claim on the Oregon coaching berth. Since both Al and Johnny are Webfoot graduates and since they both enjoy cracking good records and small college circles its easy to see the desire they had to clash head on and turn aside once and for all the bid of the other . . . Well, Mr.

Simpson came out on top, 13-8. So you might call it one more rival removed. . . . And Al in his first jaunt into college ball comes out with a PERFECT RECORD. Who could do better? Hoop Fever Gets 'Em

Prep Titles Have Portland Flavor

Folks out in the hinterlands-the "Subway alumni" of the state you might call them-were no doubt pulling for a Hood River win over Grant in the state championship grid tilt at Portland Thursday. It's the old attitude-the BIG city against the rest of country. One thing is sure, the state football championship has been pretty much a Portland monopoly. Only one team outside of the Rose City-the Medford bunch of 1944-has been able to cop the gonfalon With due credit to Joe Huston's Grants and to Pat Duff who was one fine ball player Thursday Hood River appeared to be the better ball club. The statistics showed that fact-but breaks were agin' the lads from along the upper Columbia river. 'Course you can't take away from the Generals the matter of 'em making their own breaks. Those Duff interceptions at timely moments were perhaps the turning point of the mud-logged contest . . .

Irish-Trojan Resumption

Notre Dame and USC tangle today to resume a hectic rivalry which was interrupted by the war. And what an explosive, colorful series it's been. The Notre Damers boast 10 wins to the Trojans six -but all Irish-SC contests have been close, often decided by an extra-point. Most lop-sided tilt was that 27-0 win Knute Rockne's last and greatest team piled up in 1930. And then came 1931 with Rockne gone but the Ramblers still riding high to another national championhip. Remember, Marchie Schwartz, Frank Carideo and company were leading 14-0 going into the fourth quarter of their tilt with Howard Jones' aggregation-and then came the fireworks. Two quick SC scores and then Guard Johnny Baker's field goal that won the ball game and smashed the South Benders' notable. The Irish are favored today but surprises may be in store Joe DiMaggio, Charley Keller and Tommy Henrich signed their 1947 Yankee contracts quickly enough. Opinion had been that Joe, in particular, might face a cut after his mediocre performance last season. Evidently the "Yankee Clipper" was offered the same stipend he got last season or more. Larry McPhail seems imaginative enough to realize that the performers who have been away from the game for a period of a year or more need at least one campaign in which to readjust themselves. And that SHOULD be the general attitude of the Major moguls. Now if Larry sees eye to eye with Bill Bevens everything will be jake . . .
