by Al Lightner

are VERY interested in whether Simpson will coach in 1947. How the Simpson ball has been rolling after that little push it got a couple of years ago!

In answer to a bet-setting request (bettors preferred no publicity), OSC's promising half-back from Newburg, a red-headed Dick Twenge stands five feet, nine inches tall and weighs 293 pounds. Those are up-to-date figures on the future Beaver great and were delivered by Jim Kisselburgh who coaches Twenge in the Bevo backfield. The State dope booklet lists Twenge at 5-10 and 191 pounds, but Kisselburgh's figures can be accepted as official. And how Mr. Twenge can move those 293 pounds!

Samuel's Toting Record Approaches Wedy's

Comparisons prove little in football and can cause some beautiful word brawls. But for the benefit of those who along with yours truly figured Don Samuel belonged on the All-Coast eleven, take a look at his record for the Beavers prior to yesterday's Washington game. The Hood River southpaw, who was good enough to make the Service All-American team during the war, had averaged 6.53 yards per carry. And the great Herman Wedemeyer of St. Mary's deserving gent that he is, bettered Samuel by less than a yard for his games. Wedemeyer averaged 7.1 yards per try over the 1946 route. And to go even further, All-Coaster Ernie Case of UCLA, the director of the Coast Champion Bruin team, boasted before the Nebraska game yesterday an average of 1.18 yards-per average! So let's have another ballot—and at the same time reconsider the case of another forgotten Beaver, Center Bill Gray. O'Leary Headed for Notre Dame Touchdowning

Oregon and Oregon State alumni, plus those from other northwest schools look with longing eyes on Hood River's Don (Do Everything) O'Leary. But 'twill do them no good. This quick-thinking triple threat, fine college material, is headed for Notre Dame where, if he's as good in college as he has been in high school, he'll be another Johnny Lujack. He won't be overlooked as an All-American at the South Bend school, either.

Jim (Mush) Torson, the new Portland U cage coach, admits, as coaches aren't reluctant to do, that he doesn't have much hope for a good season this winter. But he will have one sharpshooter at least—that if, if the sharpshooter can still find the hoop as regularly as he did when a prep prep. He is Leo Grosjacques, the Mt. Angel Preps whiz, an easily-remembered lad with a basketball in his hands. Another remembered local "ex," Willamette Basketball Johnny Eggers, is reportedly enrolled at Oregon State but didn't even turn out for Slats Gill's crew.

49ERS WIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30—(AP)—The San Francisco forty-niners, scoring two second period touchdowns, defeated the Chicago Rockets 14 to 0 today to go into second place in the western division of the All America conference professional football league. A crowd estimated at 12,000 attended the contest in gloomy weather.

Lund Ski Go Slated Today

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 30—(AP)—The sixth Arnold Lunn downhill race at Mt. Hood's slopes tomorrow will inaugurate the postwar revival of the event and the opening of the 1946-47 ski season. A list of 136 men and women skiers are entered in the events. Gordon Anderson and Alma Hansen are defending the titles they won in 1941.

Jim Whatley, Mississippi line coach, was an All-Conference star at Alabama in both football and basketball.

Sparks-Stanley Vows Read

Miss Darlene Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stanley, became the bride of Glenn Sparks Wednesday night at the Rosedale Friends church with the Rev. Oscar Brown performing the 8 o'clock nuptials. Lighting the tapers were Miss Grace Ann Sparks, sister of the groom, and Miss Shirley Bingheimer, who wore pink and blue rayon voile frocks over taffeta. Virgil Mason sang "Because" and "All for You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white net gown over taffeta fashioned with a short train and sweetheart neckline. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a coronet of bouvardia. She carried a white Bible marked with gardenias and streamers of white, satin ribbon and white sweet peas.

Mrs. Helen Smith was her sister's matron of honor and wore powder blue net over taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Frances Hoyt and Miss Clara Sparks, sister of the groom, who wore pink and blue net over taffeta. In their hair were clusters of pink bouvardia and pink rosebuds.

Wayne Sparks was his brother's best man and ushers were Wilbur Pearson and Chester Tucker.

Mrs. Stanley wore a black suit with pink accessories and corsage of gardenias and rosebuds for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Sparks chose a black suit with blue accessories and her flowers were gardenias and rosebuds.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Mary Bingheimer, sister of the

That Name On Our Store Means EXTRA Values We're Headquarters For The Tire That OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

"You're always sure of extra values from B.F. Goodrich, because B.F. Goodrich means 'First in Rubber.' They originated cord tires in the first place. And now they're first with a new postwar tire that actually OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!"

"As for our store, we have a 'first' of our own to offer the motorists of this community—'first in service!'"

"Overwhelming demand for the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES makes it impossible for us to fill orders as fast as we'd like to. But we will see that you're taken care of fair and square."

"Meanwhile we've got plenty of other services to offer. We'll manage to keep you rolling till those new tires arrive. And we'll fill your needs for other auto supplies with accessories of the highest quality."
