Miss Middlemiss Is Married

MT. ANGEL—Miss Helen Middlemiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Middlemiss of Silverton, became the bride of Gilbert Hoffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoffer of Mt. Angel, at a double ring ceremony in St. Mary's church November 27, at 8:15 o'clock. Rev. Vincent Koppert read the vows and sang the nuptial high mass.

Miss Helen Keber played the organ and St. Mary's choir, Miss Pauline Saalfeld and Miss Eustelle Bauman singing the solos.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white faille in princess style with long train, round neckline and long sleeves. Her short veil was Victorian style and edged in lace. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations, roses and bouvardia.

Miss Regina Hoffer and Miss Rosemary Schaecher were bridesmaids. Miss Hoffer wore blue taffeta and Miss Schaecher wore pink net lace. Both carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Arthur Hasler, Paul and Victor Hoffer were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a figured black dress with a corsage of yellow carnations while the groom's mother wore a two-piece black dress with yellow carnation corsage.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and the immediate families was served at the Hoffer home.

A reception followed in the afternoon at the Legion hall. Pouring and assisting about the rooms were Miss Elizabeth Unger and Mrs. John Hassler. Mrs. Kenneth Kehoe cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Victor Hoffer was in charge of the gifts and Miss Jean Middlemiss passed the guest book.

Serving the supper were Miss Amy Lou Espe, Miss Betty Hook, Miss Janet Hoffer and Mrs. Jorome Epping.

Spending the holiday weekend at Neskwim in the Viesko summer home are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Viesko, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Everitt, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Viesko and Mrs. Bert Jones.

Salem Daughters of the Nile will meet at Masonic temple Monday morning at 10 o'clock to sew for the Shrine hospital. Members will bring toys for the children of the hospital at that time. Luncheon will be served at 12:15 by a committee including Mrs. Robert McEwan, Mrs. Virgil Golden, Mrs. Fred Klaus, Mrs. Ethel Niles, Mrs. Lillian Carlton, Mrs. R. A. Fish and Mrs. W. L. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Robert Bryson, Jr. (June Gregson), are the parents of a son, Leslie Jay, born November 24 at the Salem Deaconess hospital. The baby weighed six pounds and fourteen and a half ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed R. Gregson of Salem and Mrs. L. G. Damewood of Maultrieville, S. C., and E. R. Bryson, Sr., of Charleston, S. C. The little boy has four great-grandmothers, Mrs. Louisa Gregson and Mrs. Ida C. Clemetson of Salem and Mrs. Minnie E. Truesdale of Maultrieville, S. C., and Mrs. G. D. Bryan of Andrews, S. C.

The Salem Weavers Guild will meet at the YMCA on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All those interested in weaving are invited to attend.
