

Salem Folk At Eugene Wedding

A number of Salem people were in Eugene, Thursday night for the marriage of Miss Ann Linden Graham, daughter of Mrs. David Graham, formerly of Salem, to George M. Rolander of Portland, which took place at the First Congregational church at 8:30 o'clock with the Rev. Wesley Nickelson officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by an old family friend, Dean H. Hayes, wore a white slipper satin gown fashioned with lace panels on the skirt and full train, long sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and buttons down the back. Her full length veil of bridal illusion, which cascaded from a seed pearl coronet, was edged with a deep border of satin and lace insets. She carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Alice Lockhart of San Mateo was maid of honor and Miss Edith Moxley of Salem was bridesmaid. The girls, who are Kappa Alpha sorority sisters of the bride, wore identical dresses of white net with striped gold metallic bodies. They wore white silk net mitts and carried crescent shaped bouquets of red carnations tied with gold metallic ribbon. In their hair were wreaths of white button chrysanthemums.

Shannon Dyer Flower Girl
Little Shannon Dyer, daughter of the Claybourne Dyers of Salem, was flower girl and wore a miniature bride's dress of white satin fashioned with puffed sleeves, long full skirt with slight train and bustle. She carried a tiny nosegay tied with satin ribbon.

Clarence Terry of Eugene was best man and ushers were Robert Rogers, Eugene; James Everett, Portland; Ulerich Dorais, San Francisco; Phillip Putnam, San Marino and Dan Diugs, Lexington.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Graham selected a red silk hokey gown with which she wore long white gloves and a red feather headdress. Pinned to the shoulder of her gown was a white orchid.

The wedding reception was held at the Kappa Alpha Theta house. Among those from Salem assisting were Mrs. Frank H. Spears and Mrs. William Connell Dyer, sr., who poured; Mrs. Raymond Walsh, Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Mrs. J. M. DeWitt, Mrs. Curtis Cross and Miss Mabel P. Robertson. Shannon Dyer passed the dream cakes during the reception.

Among others attending from here were Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Carlton McLeod, Mr. Keith Powell, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. Wallace Hug, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moxley, Mrs. Taylor Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Mrs. Elizabeth Lord, Miss Edith Schryver, L. L. Cui and Mrs. Carlton Spencer, Miss Sara Spencer, Miss Harriet Hawkins and Miss Jane Walsh.

For going away the bride donned a Milgrim black wool suit with double breasted jacket trimmed in gold buttons, black felt derby with gold sequin trim and a braze green top coat embellished with black Persian lamb. The newlyweds will live in Portland where he is with the mortgage and loan division of the Travelers Insurance Corporation.

Miss Sally McLellan is arriving tonight from Fort Lewis, to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan, sr., before leaving for Washington, D. C. where she will receive her overseas orders with the American Red Cross.

Among those motoring to Portland Thursday night to see the stage play, "State of the Union" were Mr. and Mrs. C. Lester Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer.

Mrs. G. H. Taylor of Portland spent Wednesday and Thursday in Salem at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies.
