Miss Mary Ann Brady to Be a December Bride

Miss Mary Ann Brady takes the romantic spotlight today with the announcement of her engagement and forthcoming marriage to Robert R. Siddoway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Siddoway of Nehalem, formerly of Logan, Utah.

The popular, blonde bride-elect, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Brady, sr., made known her betrothal to her Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters at dinner Tuesday night at the chapter house. A nosegay of red roses and violets, with a card bearing the names of the couple and the wedding day, December 22, was sent to the house during the dinner hour to reveal the news.

The ceremony will be performed in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church before members of the immediate family.

Miss Brady is a graduate of Salem high school and has been attending Willamette university. She wears the Pi Beta Phi arrow and is also a member of the Spinners. Her fiance attended Utah State college where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha. He served in the naval air corps for three years, being released as a lieutenant junior grade. After his discharge he completed his education at Willamette university where the couple first met.

Mr. Siddoway is now attending the University of Oregon Dental school in Portland where the couple will live following their marriage.

Mrs. Tartar New Federation Head

Mrs. A. R. Tartar of Salem was elected president of the Willamette Valley Federation of Dorcas societies of Seventh-day Adventists at a convention held Tuesday in the Salem Seventh-day Adventist church. One hundred twenty delegates and officers from 12 churches in Marion, Polk and Linn counties were present. Elder D. N. Reiner of Portland, secretary for Dorcas Societies in Oregon presided. Elder C. S. Joyce of Portland, Dorcas Federation secretary for the northwest, presided at the opening address that thousands of fellow believers will perish in central Europe unless help can reach them.

Gaiety Hill Club Hostess for Tea

The Gaiety Hill Garden club members entertained informally at tea Saturday afternoon at the Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. Lester Barr in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Edith Schryver. Calling hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The tea table was covered with a sheer white cloth and centered with an arrangement of Pernettia berries, Indian quince, clusters of cranberry red ribbon extending from a silver candelabra. Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans presided at the tea urn.

The South Salem Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet Friday at 2 o'clock with Mrs. George Henderson, 1309 South Liberty st. This will be the annual Children's Farm Home Christmas party. Gifts for the children should be brought marked on the outside as to the age and sex of the children for whom suitable. DeVern Fромke of the Youth Center will be guest speaker. Assisting hostess is Mrs. J. J. Purdy.

The Christmas meeting of the women's missionary society of the Englewood church will be held Thursday at 2:15 at the home of Mrs. Harry Rowe, 940 D street. Mrs. Jay Yarnell will be assisting, hostess and Mrs. Otis Bradbury leader. A white elephant gift exchange will be held.

You feel better today, because some Scientist DIDN'T GO TO BED . . .

Is some lonely laboratory a single lamp casts into the darkness of the after-hours. A selfless scientist toils out the record of five hundred failures, as he begins another, and perhaps another long, tedious, futile quest for the one elusive formula.

Thus inch by painful inch our practitioners of the healing arts gain upon the entrenched demons of Disease. Bit by bit they strip dread scourges of their veiled terror. Accordingly, the tally of man's mortal enemies becomes leaner, year upon year.

Pi Phi House Scene of Tea On Friday

The Pi Beta Phi house on the Willamette university campus will be the scene of a formal tea on Friday afternoon when the active chapter members entertain in honor of their new housemother, Mrs. Denise Murray. Calling hours are from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Invitations have been extended to members of the faculty, alumnae and mothers clubs and members of all campus living organizations. Greeting guests at the door will be Miss Paula Smith and Miss Beverly Briggs.

In the receiving line will be Miss Lorraine Murdock, house president, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Elbert W. Roberts and Mrs. Donald Jeppesen.

Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon will be Mrs. Lee Egan and Mrs. James Humphrey. Coeds serving in the dining room will be Misses Maryann Wittliff, Jean Gibbons, Bettie Olson, Adele Egan, Winona Dillard, Kathleen Secord and Addy Lane.

During the afternoon Miss Wittliff and Miss Kay Karnopp will play piano selections.

Tea Honors Visitor on Tuesday

Popular visitor in the capital is Mrs. Ezra Webb of San Francisco, who is a guest at the home of Mrs. Bert Ford and her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Campbell, jr. Mrs. Webb will be remembered as Helen Campbell when she made her home here. She expects to return to the bay city the end of the week.

Mrs. Ford was hostess for an informal tea Tuesday afternoon at her South River Road home for the pleasure of Mrs. Webb. Friends of the honor guests were invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Ralph Moody presided at the tea urn. The hostess used holiday greens for decorating.

Trio Sings Carols For Mothers

The Pi Beta Phi mothers were entertained at the chapter house Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. B. F. Williams read the Christmas story, "The Little Mixer." The Phi trio sang a group of carols for the mothers. Tea was served following the meeting.

Attending were Mrs. Miles Edwards, Mrs. C. E. Stricklin, Mrs. W. H. East, Mrs. Robert G. Brady, Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. Franklin Bishop, Mrs. Carl Schneider, Mrs. C. L. Carson, Mrs. Walter B. Minier, Mrs. Solon Shinkle, Mrs. Wayne Price, Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Arthur G. Upston.
