Idanha Bride Given Shower

IDANHA — Thelma Lee Lady entertained Monday for her sister Mrs. Fred Martin, a recent bride. After opening the gifts, the bride cut a wedding cake in the candle lighted dining room. After the shower the members of the party gave the newly-weds an old-fashioned charivari.

Attending the shower were Pearl Giebler, Donna Willis, Mrs. Glenn Wynn, Edna Cannon, Fred Ray, Lena Cannon, Nellie Tucker, Jean Cannon, Bertha Reynolds, Ruth Cole, LaVern Willis, Eva Debolt, Esther Fouts, Eleanor Hopson, Lue-lla Floyd, Doris Haseman, Louise Wolfe, Gwendolyn Gates, Mary Gillford, Ina Whitten, Kerline Slater, Patricia Evans, Nellie Ray, Rena Manasco, Amanda Grow, Mona Ritthaler, Hilda O'Brien.

The CIO auxiliary is planning a community Christmas tree for December 21. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haseman, Judy, Louise Wolfe and Don Farrow were in Salem Saturday.

Pratum Plans For Programs

PRATUM — School vacation will be from December 25 to January 2.

Sale of paper collected by the school brought more than $31. Upper room Junior Red Cross contributed $8.50 and used the money to send 10 boxes of Christmas cards to the Veterans' hospital at Roseburg. This room collected $4 for the tuberculosis fund by selling bangle pins and the lower room collected $3.10.

Upper grade pupils purchased a table tennis set and a football. Sixty one children were given physical check-ups recently when Dr. W. J. Stone, county health officer held a clinic at the school.

Grain Market Trading Mixed

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Final prices on grains were mixed today at the end of a session of conflicting trends. Corn contracts finished lower, oats were slightly higher while all wheat deliveries except January were down major fractions.

Stocks Rise At New York

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Industrial favorites lifted fractions to more than 2 points in late stock market dealings today after several hours of nervous hesitation. General support was not attracted by the move and a number of leaders remained aloof, suffering fractional losses.
