Lynn Barker Wins State Bank Trophy

Lynn Barker, Salem, has been adjudged state winner of the Oregon Bankers association sponsored farm shop contest. Ralph L. Morgan, state supervisor of agricultural education, announced Wednesday. His name will be engraved on the rotating plaque and he will receive a cash prize of $20. Other winners in this district were: 2, Dale Schatz, Newberg; 3, Norman Gubser, Dayton; 4, Bill Orlham, McMinnville; 5, Charlie Chase, Junction City; 6, Merton Sabnow, Hillsboro; 7, Donald Whitney, Amity. The purpose of the contest is to stimulate FFA boys to improve their home farm shop and repair machinery and equipment at home and at school. Lynn Barker did a wide variety of work, making an old house into a farm shop, rewiring and equipping it. At home he built a trailer and forge. Lynn built a tractor out of car parts which he sold. The money he invested in a new tractor, a disc, harrow and cultivator. He has recently rented seven acres of bottom land for a truck crop project this spring.

Provides Year-Round Comfort

LET WARDS INSULATE YOUR HOME NOW!

Have Wards experts insulate your home the right way! Rock wool will be blown-in under proper pressures for effective year-round insulation. No muss, no fuss for you! It's the economical way to insulate . . . and it's as fireproof as rock itself! Ask about Wards Home Improvement Plan . . . nothing down, up to 15 months to pay!

What is rock wool? It is a soft, fluffy, fibrous material, locking as the name implies, like wool. Made by blowing jets of live steam into molten rock. Contains millions of tiny dead air cells that prevent passage of heat and deaden sound. Fireproof, may be laid around wiring . . . Light, clean and odorless. Vermin cannot live in it. A 1-inch thickness has the insulating efficiency equal to that of 57.3 inches of concrete.
