

Elks to Distribute Clothes to Needy

Clothing for all ages will be distributed by the Elks lodge from the Elks temple basement from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. today, Friday and Saturday. The clothing is donated by Elks and their families to aid needy persons, under the lodge program with Joe Kraeger as chairman.

Oregon Health Continues Good

PORTLAND, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Oregon was a healthy place last week the state board of health reported today, despite record rains and a major valley flood.

The number of communicable disease cases reported was only 239, smallest for the second week in December since 1938. Only one case of influenza was recorded.

The board said its emergency organization to handle any future infantile paralysis epidemic has been set up.

Jefferson Methodists Observe Anniversary

JEFFERSON — The Jefferson Methodist church observed its 75th anniversary Sunday with special services at morning and afternoon services. Dr. Roy A. Fedje, district superintendent, was guest speaker in the morning and music was given by the Pacific college quartet, Mary McClintock, Norval Hadley, Dick Cadd, Helen Antrim.

A basket dinner was served at the noon hour. O. E. Newport of the Tanager Methodist church spoke. Mrs. C. M. Smith gave a history of the Methodist church.

Retired Prof Returns to WU

Prof. Charles C. Haworth, retired in 1944 from the Willamette university faculty after serving since 1927, has been appointed by President G. Herbert Smith to fill the faculty vacancy created in the Spanish department by the departure of Prof. William Moellering. Prof. Moellering has accepted a position as Spanish professor at San Jose State college, in California. Haworth, whose appointment is temporary, will teach three classes of first semester Spanish. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Penn college, and was a resident of Cuba and Mexico for 20 years. Other classes vacated by Prof. Moellering will be taken over by Prof. Paul Beal and Miss Jean Fleishhauer, of the university faculty.
