

Seen and Heard....

By Ieryme English

HIGHLIGHTS of the holidays for the younger set... the annual Rainbow Christmas formal... this year held Monday night... Crystal Gardens transformed into a "Blue Prelude" theme with blue spun glass and blue crepe paper streamers... Hardly dancing room as over five hundred attended... with dozens sitting out between dances to allow room for other.

Refreshing sight... to see so many young lovelies and their escorts, who looked even younger... Charlotte Alexander was attractive in her full skirted black taffeta dress with black and white bodice sprinkled with black sequins and red carnations in her brunette curls... Suzanne Huggins wearing a pale orchid and yellow striped taffeta frock with halter bodice... and her co-hostess before the dance, Carol Fallon, in a striped taffeta, one shoulder bare.

Spotted... Virginia Huston in a quaint off the shoulder dress of black with red horizontal stripes... a rhinestone choker and her blonde hair done in curls with white carnations in the back... Joan Adolph in an unusual gown of bronze brown bengaline, halter bodice with scalloped neck-line... Donna Lechead in a Mrs. Christmas velvet frock... Having fun... Barbara King in a black and white tony check taffeta... Patty Wilson in a portrait blue satin dress with cerise bow at the waistline... Worthy advisor, Joyce Smith, in white organza and blue taffeta bow at the waist... The Hale girls, Patricia and Doris, in identical frocks of black with char-treuse and black print draped girdles with bustles in back... Sophisticated Cynthia Needham in a striking off-the-shoulder gown of silver brocade with low torso and full skirt of white taffeta... long mitts of the brocade and an orchid in her long, blonde tresses... Carol Cain in black with pink inset in back and bustle... Donna Lawrence in black combined with gold... pretty Pat Burrell in a piqued frock... young Elizabeth Jane Johnson in white with a blue ruffle at the neckline.

Rings Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Kimery and children of Portland visited his parents, the James Kimerys, his brother, Ellard Kimery and his sister Mrs. Art Ayers and family.

... the florists must have really done a rushing business Monday as we're sure nearly every girl (over two hundred of them) had a corsage... and the benches in the downstairs hall laden with corsage boxes... the flowers pinned on after arrival.

MORE DANCE NOTES... at the Town club's holiday dinner dance at the Marion hotel Saturday... Many out-of-town guests glimpsed... From Portland came two former Salem couples... Dr. and Mrs. Louis Schoel... she is stunning in a black velvet suit and one sleeve at the shoulder brilliant colored sequins... the Virgil Dunkins... the latter in black velvet with a white lace yoke... Captain and Mrs. Winston Williams greeting old friends... Grace wearing a Jade green Chinese silk gown and real Chinese slippers... Winston leaves the end of the week for Washington, D.C. prior to receiving final orders to Frankfurt for foreign duty... Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Johns were here from Albany... he now associated with Melvin Goode.

Outstanding... Mrs. Vernon Perry so striking in an off-the-shoulder model of black satin with draped skirt and bustle... Mrs. Clayton Foreman in a sophisticated gown of peony red crepe with flowered decollete and one flower caught low on the skirt in back and long gloves to match... Especially liked the red pointsettias on Margaret Hardman's black gown... Marjorie Cooley very Christmasy with a sprig of white holly in her updo hair style... Mrs. Harry Gustafson wearing a satin paisley print sprinkled with bright colored sequins and short gold mesh mitts... Mrs. Robert DeArmond in a dashing brown and aqua striped taffeta frock with bow at the hipline and halter bodice... So becoming was Mrs. Ralph Purine's up-sweep hairdo and her blue steel crepe gown with draped skirt and gold belt... Effective were the gold sequin fans on Mrs. Jack Price's full skirted black gown... and Mrs. Glenn Stevens' winter white wool frock with gold sequins scattered on the bodice.
