Vet Deprived Of Climb Up Capitol Dome

BOISE, Idaho, Dec. 26 (AP)—A professional steeplejack today deprived an ex-paratrooper of the dubious opportunity of clambering over the lofty dome of Idaho's capitol to replace burned out electric lights.

Bank Clerk Garland Drewrey, 25, former paratrooper, volunteered yesterday for the job after Statehouse Custodian Martin Garvin said members of his staff — from 60 to 77 years of age — were "too old" for the job.

Two hours before, Drewrey was to begin state officials decided to let the task on a contract to Steeplejack Charles H. Chambers and his helper, Cecil V. Martin, jr., 22.

Officials explained they thought it was advisable to employ Chambers in view of his professional experience. He and Martin expected to finish the job tomorrow. Two strings of lights that encircle the dome like separate necklaces were the object of their attention.

On the upper string some seven stories above ground the steeplejacks tip-toed along an 18-inch ledge, utilizing a long pole to reach the light sockets. For the lower strand they manipulated the pole from ladders lashed to stone columns that support the crest of the dome.

Long-Missing Sardines Back In Bay Area

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26 (AP)—Succeeding where elaborate scientific detection devices had failed, the skipper of a recon-verted navy vessel brought Fisherman's Wharf the glad news today: The sardines are coming.

But no matter how heavy the long awaited run, this will still be the worst season in Bay area history, fishermen said. The run usually starts in mid-July, and the season will end on February 15.

John Mladinich, master of a surplus navy destroyer escort he brought from Seattle for a California purchaser, spotted the great schools off the Farallone islands December 24. He said he couldn't get a minute's rest until he had brought the good news home.

Sound Detectors Failed

The purse seiner Pearl Harbor, equipped with anti-submarine sound detectors, sought without success last April to locate the elusive schools. Less than two months ago a navy blimp tried with no better luck.

Where the sardines have been hiding all this time no one knows, Dan Bohne, marine insurance man who had accompanied Mladinich, reported. He said somebody ought to do some scientific research and find out.

Canneries Get Up Steam

San Francisco's small-craft fleet, which went south some time ago seeking larger catches, meanwhile headed for home — for the kill. And some 40 sardine canneries and reduction plants are getting up steam.

Airlines to Ask More Pay for Flying Mails

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—Many of the nation's airlines were reported today to ask the government for a pay hike soon to help meet rising costs in flying the mail.

One airline is also expected to ask a 10 per cent boost for passenger fares.

Airline officials pictured the various companies' overall financial situation as probably the blackest since the civil aeronautics act was passed in 1938, with operating costs already exceeding income for some carriers.

These officials said labor and material costs have risen sharply and heavy commitments have been made for surplus wartime transports and new equipment, delivery of which has been delayed by labor difficulties and material shortages. Meanwhile, payloads have dropped below estimates for the usual seasonal decline.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are bothersome, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 4 pints a day.

If the 16 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work, poisonous waste accumulates in the blood. These poisons may start ringing backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or steady passages of uric acid and burning sometimes show there's something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your doctor for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully for millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives heavy relief and will help the 16 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Senators in Spotlight

These are the GOP veterans who by virtue of seniority in committee are in line to take over chairmanship of headline committees in the 80th congress — thereby having a decisive say on what legislation will be taken up on the floor for action. Their states, number of years service in the senate and probable committee chairmanships are shown. Should the new congress go along with earlier streamlining plans, there would be telescoping of some committees. Several of the senators shown have seniority on more than one committee but Capitol Hill observers believe that the committee shown under each name is the one each man will prefer to direct if existing procedure continues.
