

Guests Are Bidden to Luncheon

Mrs. James B. Young and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry will be hostesses for a smartly arranged luncheon Friday afternoon at the Normandy Manor.

Bidden are members of the hostesses bridge clubs and a few additional guests. The afternoon hours will be spent informally. Guests will be seated at small tables and bouquets of spring flowers will provide the decorative note.

Visitors Fly To Nebraska

Mrs. Charles Neville Flitton (Mary Elizabeth Sisson) has arrived in the capital from Bremerton for an indefinite stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown E. Sisson. Ensign Flitton left Monday on his ship, the USS Chikaski, for Guam via San Francisco and San Pedro. He is a navigator on the ship. Following his return to the states in the spring he plans to be released from the navy and expects to continue his studies at dental school at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Accompanying Mrs. Flitton home for a few days stay were Mrs. Selmer Solem, Jr., and daughter, Sylvia Jean, who left Wednesday night by plane for their home in North Platte, Nebraska. The girls' husbands are on the same ship and the Solems have also been residing in Bremerton.

Reception Fetes New Officers

Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, met in regular session Tuesday night at the Masonic temple with Mrs. Fred B. Keeler, and H. R. Robinson presiding as worthy matron and worthy patron.

Past Worthy Matron Bertha Bergman and Past Worthy Patron Earl E. Wiper were honored and spoke of their year's work.

Visitors present were Irene Selle from Hooper, Neb.; and Margaret Kelly, past worthy matron from Albany.

Tuesday afternoon, January 14, there will be a dessert luncheon followed by a social afternoon of cards and sewing. On January 21 Catherine Felger, associate grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon, will pay her official visit in the evening and will give a school of instruction in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

After the chapter meeting a reception was held by the appointive retiring officers for the new 1947 officers. The tables were decorated with white table cloths with white candles and greens. The committee in charge of the reception included Mesdames G. G. Perkins, J. E. Frizzell, Helen Busch, Gloria Smith, V. L. Walker, Mary Fowler, Helen Anthony, S. Raynor Smith and Earl E. Wiper.

Mrs. William F. Foster left Salem by train Sunday for San Francisco where she will spend a few days with relatives before sailing on the USS Matsonland for the Hawaiian Islands to visit for several weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lottis. Mr. Lottis is manager of the Kress store at Hilo.

FEEDING DAIRY COWS

There are two principal uses to which the dairy cow puts her feed. These are: (1) Maintenance, (2) Milk production.

The feeder, in choosing a dairy feed, should be concerned with the total digestible nutrients. Triangle Dairy Feeds are carefully built to produce maximum milk production and to maintain a healthy producing animal.

These scientifically balanced feeds contain: Rolled Oats, Wheat Millfeed, Soybean Meal, Linseed Oil Meal, Rolled Barley, Ground Corn, Molasses, Cane Molasses, Minerals, and Dairy Salt. No artificial or unnatural elements are added to boost the protein analysis. See your local Triangle Dealer.

Guests of the hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. William Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hauge, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Margosian.

Wednesday night Mrs. Ellis entertained members of her club at bridge and a late supper. Guests were Mrs. Wallace Hug, Mrs. W. Emery Hobbs, Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. Andrew Halvorson, Mrs. Jack Price, Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst, Mrs. Robert Needham and Mrs. Werner Brown.

Gertrude Eder Is Married

GERVAIS—The Sacred Heart Catholic church was the scene last Saturday at 8:30 a. m. of an impressive double ring ceremony when Miss Gertrude Eder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel Eder of Gervais and Leroy Duda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alois P. Duda of Mt. Angel, were married.

The bride wore a dress of white slipper satin with full train and fingertip veil. She carried a white prayer book and white orchid. Her attendants were her sister, Miss Irene Eder, maid of honor, who wore green net, and Miss Bernice Duda, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid who wore yellow net. They both carried a cascade arrangement of white and yellow chrysanthemums and pink roses.

Raymond Duda, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. A dinner for the immediate families was served at the home of the bride's parents and a reception was held in the afternoon at the parish hall. In the evening a wedding dance was given in the high school auditorium.

After a motor trip to California the couple will reside in a new home on a farm near Mt. Angel.

Mrs. Donald Armpriest entertained at bridge and supper Wednesday night at her home for members of her club. Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren was an additional guest.

Date Is Set For February Rites

Miss Ann Gearin and Walter Lewis Smith have set their wedding date for February 8 at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gearin of Donald and her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Mary Smith of Salem.

Miss Gearin attended schools in Woodburn and is employed at the Western Paper Converting Co. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Stayton schools and Oregon State college. He is now with the Stayton Cannery.

Mrs. Kenneth Barker and daughters, Judy and Linda, of Eugene, formerly of Salem, are visiting in the capital this week at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Rurres.

Mrs. Maurice Heater has invited members of her club to bridge and a late supper tonight at her country home at Union Hills.
