'No Interest' in Sport Reason; Schaake Non-Commital on Status

By Al Lightner

As revealed in The Statesman yesterday morning, Walter E. of Idaho, trimming the hapless Vandals 69 to 49 to move into first (Walt) Erickson has resigned his posts as Willamette university place in the northern division, Pacific coast conference. The Huskies' football coach and director of athletics. The grid mentor who quit his administration office swivel only last year to take over the football reins, made it known yesterday that he had submitted his resignation at the close of last season, a very successful campaign for the mentor in his first year of college coaching in that the Bearcats won the Northwest conference championship.

In a one-sentence statement issued yesterday Erickson said: "At the close of the football season, I submitted my resignation to President Smith for the very simple reason that I discovered that coaching no longer held the same interest for me that it had previously.

Before taking over as dean of freshmen and director of admissions at Willamette for six years, Erickson had coached successfully at Camas. Wash., high school. His Bearcats last tall won six and lost lamette university football coach. Assistant Grid Coach and Head two games, snatching the conference title easily.

From Boston, where he is attending fraternity and education meetings, WU President G. Herbert Smith yesterday stated: "After a highly successful football season as head coach and director of athletics, Mr. Walter E. Er-Closer to Enactment tor of athletics, Mr. Walter E. Er-ickson resigned from his position as director of athletics and football coach. His resignation was submitted to me at the close of the football season and has been discussed only with the head of the athletic committee of the board of trustees and with the president of the board of trustees. Mr. Erickson has given valuable service to the university as an administrative officer and it is the purpose of the administration to recommend Mr. Erickson's appointment as director of admissions and placement at the first meeting of the executive committee which also will consider his resignation as director of athlet-ICS.

It was also reported in The Statesman yesterday that Elmer Schaake, assistant football coach and head basketball coach, had also resigned. Schaake was approached for a statement yesterday but neither denied or confirmed such a move.

Appointment of a successor to Erickson will rest with Dr. Smith, who is not due back from Boston until late this month.

The sun comes up every morning, water flows down hill-and Man is gonna make errors at one time or another. We oughta know. We made a whopper Saturday morning concerning a certain Willamette-Pacific go which wasn't. To say we were ehagrined is putting it mildly. In the press business a "boner" of any magnitude leaves one with a feeling akin to trying to pick up marbles with boxing gloves. The error goes relentlessly through the presses and comes out a glaring blot on the newspage. It's by that time irretractable. Anyway, deep-hearted apologies to Les Sparks, Elmer Bchaake and the others up at WU. . . . Feebly we mutter. "It won't happen again."

Let Down

"Hey, Susie, you know I been thinkin' since you lost your diamond ring. You know what! I'm gonna get you a pip-a real sparkler this time. It's J. EDGAR HOOVER a good thing you lost that two-bit stone."

"But, Honey, you can't afford it!"

"Yeah! Listen, Baby, I hocked my golf clubs and I'm forgettin' that new car radio I was plannin' on buyin'. It's gonna be the works for you this time. We're gonna start travelin' in good company."

"Oh, Honey, you're making me happy." LATER: "Oh, John, home already?" . . . "Yeah, Baby, only-"

"Oh, John, you've GOT the ring already! Let me see it!" (The missus furiously unwraps the little package.)

"Oh, John, it's lov-why John Muschnik! It's nothing but cut glass! How could you!"

(An agonized expression is on John's face) "Shucks, Baby, when achieve the victory. Covalt paced Olinger It got right down to doing it I couldn't-I couldn't splurge. I never the winners with eight counters. Foreman done it before. I-I just couldn't."

The above incident (if you're wondering) and Susie's let-down mirrors remnonably well, we think, the mental reactions of lots of sportsters following Oregon's selection of its latest grid mentor. Following the shake-up of the Webfoot athletic board a good many G. Mason (4) side-line sitters had hopes of the powers down Eugene way grab-bing a diamond from the rough—like maybe Al Simpson.

Not that we're implying James Aiken is "a piece of glass." It's the record that he's had all the experience in the world-is a top fundamentalist. But, nevertheless, a generous number of the second-guessers are wondering if it's Oliver all over again. They shake their heads and mumble, "Oh, my, there was Simpson . . . an' Warren an' maybe Hanley. . . . " And then the realist gtrolls in, aims a mouthful of plug-cut at the corner cuspidor, says. New UO Coach Yardage-Minded Man

It is an oddity that reluctance of the Oregons to turn to young blood when a vacancy occurs in the grid post. They wouldn't have to cast their eyes far over the field to find examples of "young'uns" who came up and made whopping successes even in their initial year. LaBrucherie at UCLA, Brown at Ohio State. Lots of 'em. Speed Boys

Oregon State's Lew Beck and Dave Silver and Oregon's Stan Williamson are lightning fast at the down-court dribble but Willamette's Scotty Sebern and Frankie Page are no turtles in their own right. And what a hair-raising tussle was that Cat-Lewis & Clark fray of Tuesday night. The pell-mell pace the lads adhered to throughout the tilt must have surely melted the icicles off the gym roof. . . . Bob Pollard, the L&Cs' pivoter with the physical proportions of an All-America tackle, used his 200-odd pounds effectively as he literally burst by main strength through Cat defensemen for under-the-basket shots. . . J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the FBI, rates raves for his blast at sports promoters to clean up their own back yards of the gambling element. Lots of the boys "talk" reforms but wait for the other fellow to do the reforming. . . .
