

Gen. Marshall To Take Oath On Monday

By John M. Highower
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18—(AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall will be sworn in as secretary of state at the White House Monday and probably begin at once conferences with President Truman and Retiring Secretary Byrnes on outstanding foreign policy issues.

A check with officials today shows he faces three main problems:

(1) Fully acquainting himself with American policy on many issues but especially on the German peace settlement to come up at the Moscow conference opening March 10.

(2) Devising on top aides and officials to work with him in the state department.

(3) Working with President Truman on various shifts in important diplomatic assignments abroad.

Byrnes Clears Desk
The White House announced the hour (8 a. m. PST) for the inauguration ceremony as Byrnes, his desk cleared and his brief case packed, opened the great, windowed doors of his office and received scores of state department men and women who shook his hand and wished him well.

The private expressed conviction of his close associates is that Byrnes is saying farewell to the state department but not permanently to Washington. There is speculation that he may some day return either to the supreme court or to the senate or accept from President Truman a less strenuous job. His friends say they know he will not retire to a life of inactivity.

To Attend Ceremony
Byrnes will attend the ceremony at which Chief Justice Vinson will administer the oath to Marshall. Marshall is expected here by plane from Honolulu.

Infantry Unit Conducts Drills
Regular weekly drills are being held by company B, 162nd Infantry, 41st division in the Salem army camp Thursday night at 7 p. m. Some of the reactivated guard unit were with the original company and served in the regiment war. New members are being encouraged to join by the new pay rates of $2.50 for privates to $3.50 for first sergeants, per day of active duty.

Major John D. George, regular army, has been named army instructor for the national guard at Salem, Eugene, McMinnville, Silverton and Oregon City. These cities have units of the first battalion, 152nd Infantry, 41st division.

House Destroyed, Chimney Blamed
FOUR CORNERS—Fire damage estimated at $3000 completely destroyed a house owned by William Hodgson, and occupied by the H. E. Boatwright family at 3145 D street on Wednesday afternoon.

The fire was bursting through windows and progressed for some time before neighbors noted it and called the Four Corners department. Nobody was at home at the time the fire was discovered.

The Four Corners fire department, which was on the job for over two hours, was able to save the garage and two nearby dwellings.

An overheated stove and defective chimney were believed to have caused the fire. The loss was partially covered by insurance, the owner stated.

CARS IN COLLISION
A collision involving cars driven by Harry Lenton, 387 Mission st. and Otto Schies, 1343 S. Commercial at Saturday afternoon, was reported by city police last night. There was little damage to either car.

Polish Diplomat Calls Election Today 'Final Step in Sell-Out'

By Sigrid Arne
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18—(AP)—Poland's wartime ambassador to Washington, Jan Ciechanowski, views today's elections in his home country as the "final step in the sell-out of Poland as the price paid for his three unities."

In an interview he said he repeatedly told President Roosevelt and state department officials that concessions to Marshal Stalin of Russia on the postwar status of Poland would open the door to communist domination of Europe—with Poland only the "test case."

The first step in the sell-out, he said, "was the Anglo-American agreement at the Yalta conference in 1945 to Stalin's demand for eastern Poland up to the Ribbentrop-Molotov line, conveniently called the 'Curzon line.'"

Ciechanowski said he thinks that agreement was made originally at Tehran in December, 1943, and kept secret from the Polish exile government in London. He said the Poles learned of it officially only in October, 1944.

At that meeting, Ciechanowski recalled, Stalin insisted on Russian possession of eastern Poland. He was supported by British Prime Minister Churchill. The Polish premier, Stanislaw Gmikalajczyk, argued vehemently against it until Molotov dramatically announced that President Roosevelt had agreed.

Made No Denial
W. Averell Harriman, then U.S. ambassador to Moscow, was present, Ciechanowski said, but made no denial. Later Gmikalajczyk called Roosevelt for confirmation.

He said he received a reply which made no direct answer but stated the United States would agree to any solution of border difficulties agreed upon.

"I later learned," Ciechanowski added, "that Churchill made the original proposal to cut Poland and to the Ribbentrop-Molotov line, proposing that Poland be compensated by territory taken from Germany."

VATICAN CITY, Jan. 18—(AP)—Pope Pius XII told a group of 10 American newsmen today that food and supplies the United States had so "lavishly" shipped to Europe's hungry war victims had been tagged in some countries "with the price of adherence to a political party."

The pope made no reference to any specific country in his charge that political considerations were being applied to distribution of relief supplies. His statement was made to the newsmen who are touring Europe as guests of the U. S. army.
