Stocks End Slow Week

NEW YORK, Jan. 25-(AP)-The stock market today concluded its second slewest 6-session week in nearly two years with apathy and mild irregularity persisting. The list made scant response to the overnight news of the steel wage truce. The ticker tape loafed from the start and fractional unevenness prevailed at the close. Transfers of 430,000 shares were the smallest since January 4 and compared with 790,000 last Saturday. The week's aggregate of 4,425,980 shares was a low for six days since the period ended November 30. Last week the volume was

School News

By Denna Carr

Leslie students have been busy the past week ordering school pins and pictures of various school activities. The school pins are being sold to raise money for the ASB treasury.

New basketball suits have arrived for the varsity team at Leslie. The new regalia includes gold pants and jerseys trimmed with blue numbers and insignias. The warmup jackets are blue with gold trim.

The student body council at Leslie is considering a change in a nickname for the school's athletic teams from "Missionaries" medium-good lambs 18.00-21.50.
