Iverson-Barnes Rites in Denver

TURNER—At rites solemnized January 4 in Denver, Colorado, Miss Brookie Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace L. Barnes of Turner, became the bride of Captain Edward S. Iverson, USMM, of Mill Valley, California.

The ceremony was read at 4 o'clock in the chapel of historic Trinity Methodist church with the Rev. R. W. Marble officiating. Miss Barnes wore a costume of cocoa brown with elongated jacket and slight bustle effect. Her hat was a pill box model of matching shade cuffed with sequins. Her accessories were brown and she carried a brown fur top coat. Her corsage was of orchids.

Following a honeymoon in Denver and Colorado Springs, Captain Iverson and his bride returned to the coast for a brief visit before leaving Portland by plane for San Francisco where he will take his ship.

Mrs. Iverson, daughter of an Oregon pioneer family, is a graduate of Salem high school, the Capital Business college and the Taylor St. Clinic and Laboratory in Portland. She was formerly with the state tax commission in Salem. Mrs. Iverson has resided in Portland for the past few years.

Valentine's Day Easy to Decorate, Plan Menu For: Have Party for Family

Valentine's day is easiest of all festive days to make something of. For red is an easy color to use in decorations and hearts are handy for use as a motif.

Even when the family will dine alone on Valentine's day it's fun to make something of the meal, and with little extra effort too.

If you wish to go farther and have a party, or have friends or relatives in for dessert, that's easy too.

Heart shaped molds or cookie cutters are in most every list of kitchen gadgets, and if not, they're easy to find at the store. Jellied cranberry salad, molded fruit in strawberry or raspberry gelatin can be either jelled in heart shaped molds or allowed to congeal in a flat pan with heart shaped cookie cutters and placed on lettuce leaves.

Even the biscuits can be cut in heart shapes. Red radishes can be used to garnish the meat, or if you are not using cranberries in your salad, a slice can be placed on each plate to give the required red color.

The main dish, if you really want to carry the Valentine idea to the menu, can be chicken or meat pies, topped with heart shaped pie crust. Beets are a good vegetable to use.

Dessert could be heart shaped pieces of cake with strawberry ice cream, individual cherry or raspberry tarts cut heart shaped, or baked red apples with heart shaped cookies.

Table decorations can be a necessity of flowers, potted plant put on large heart shaped red paper outlined with lace paper doilies, or pussy willows arranged in a vase and tied with red ribbon. You could have place cards even for the family, with little effort, just to add gaiety to the occasion.

Red tapers will help the general effect.
