

Miss Boyd, Mr. Thomas Married

In a spring setting of pastel stock and snapdragons at the First Congregational church Saturday night Miss Dorothy Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Boyd of Vancouver, Wash., became the bride of Dean C. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Thomas of Salem. The Rev. M. A. Getzenander performed the 8 o'clock ceremony. Lighting the tapers were Miss Patricia Miller and Miss Jean Robertson, who wore lavender and pink frocks. Louis Herder of Portland sang and Mrs. Kenneth Rich was the organist. The white satin bridal gown was simply designed, with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, scalloped waistline and a full skirt which terminated in a train. Her lace edged fingertip veil was made in three tiers and caught at each side of her coiffure with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried an off-center bouquet of white bouvardia and an orchid. Mr. Boyd gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Barbara Jean Crawford was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Thomas, the groom's sister, and Miss Arleen Boeth of Portland. Miss Crawford wore a mist blue tulle gown and a crown of flowers to match her fan shaped bouquet of pink snapdragons and yellow roses. The bridesmaids wore pale yellow frocks with small hats to match. They carried fan bouquets of wedgewood iris and white snapdragons.

Attend the Groom

William Reinhardt was best man and ushers were Roy Houck, Henry Boyd of Vancouver, Jack Jensen and Andrew Zahare.

Mrs. Boyd wore a black dinner gown with pale pink hat and gloves for her daughter's marriage. Her flowers were shell pink carnations. Mrs. Thomas chose a black dress with white lace apron effect and white accessories for her son's nuptials. Her flowers were white hyacinths.

The couple greeted guests at a reception at the Chi Omega house. Miss Muriel Just was in charge. Miss Margaret Allen greeted guests at the door. Mrs. Robert Schlegel cut the bride's cake and Miss Patricia Waters poured. Serving were Miss Nancy Montgomery, Miss Barbara Trambly, Mrs. Sen-ton Ford and Mrs. William Butler. Assisting were Miss Joyce Reeves, Miss Janet Gibson, Miss Shirley Kenagy, Miss Jean Carsh and Miss Virginia Atkinson.

For going away the bride wore a grey suit with flared poplin, balloon sleeves and black accessories. On return from their honeymoon they will be at home at the veterans housing unit while he is attending Willamette university.

Parliamentary usage will be discussed at the Salem Junior Woman's club meeting Monday night at the clubhouse at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Fred C. Gast in charge. She will discuss Roberts Rules of Order and compare it with the Emma Fox rules now in use by the club.

Pythian Sisters PLE and Felub will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Eunice Burk, 642 Edgewater street, Wednesday night at a covered dish supper at 6:30 o'clock. A valentine gift exchange will be held and names of secret pals will be revealed.

Miss Gearin A Bride

St. Joseph's Catholic church was the setting for the nuptials of Miss Ann Gearin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gearin of Donald, and Walter Lewis Smith, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Father T. J. Bernards officiated. The altar was decorated with white snapdragons, stock and carnations. Bernard Smith of Woodburn was soloist.

Mr. Gearin gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was white nylon taffeta designed with a full skirt and train. The fitted bodice was made with long shirred sleeves, a yoke of net adorned with sequins and pearls, and a bustle. Her full length tulle veil fell from a pearl half hat. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and pink bouvardia and a pearl rosary, a gift of the groom.

Preceding the bride to the altar were Mrs. Charles Coffey of Watsonville, Calif., her sister's matron of honor, Miss Maxine Coleman of Portland and Miss Lucille Dur-rant of Salt Lake City, bridesmaids. They wore identical frocks of frosted blue brocaded taffeta. They had matching blue gauntlets and carried pastel nosegays and coronets of flowers in their hair.

Flower Girl in White

Lindie Pendleton of Stayton, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She carried a basket of flowers and wore a flowered bonnet. Fernando Smith of Stayton stood with his brother as best man. Ushers were Paul Reidy, Jerry Marking of Stayton and Ira Stouss of Portland.

Mrs. Gearin selected a grey dress with black hat and accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of pink and white rosebuds and gardenias.

The wedding reception was held at the Normandy Manor. Mrs. Nora Reilly of Portland poured and Miss Agnes Meyers cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Paul Reidy presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Frederick Reidy passed the guest book. Assisting were Mrs. Louis Hodak of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Donald Brown and Mrs. Rudy Kallander. In charge of the gift table were Mrs. Donald Panek, Mrs. Earl Pettit, Miss Bernice Mischler and Miss Betty Noack.

The newlyweds went to southern California on their honeymoon. For traveling the bride wore an avenue grey suit with three-quarter length fitted coat and grey but-

Seen and Heard....

By Ieryme English

CANINE CAPERS. . . . In San Francisco last Sunday for the grand opening of the Golden Gate Kennel club dog show at the Civic auditorium were Mr. and Mrs. A. Folsom Hayes, now of Portland, but formerly of Lake Labish and Salem. . . . Accompanying them were their St. Bernards including a trio, "Apolo," "Gerda" and "Mountain Valkyr," who flew over from Switzerland just last month. . . .

At the show they took trophies in best of breed and best of opposite sex. . . . The Hayes also showed their St. Bernards in the east in the fall and came home with several trophies. . . . The Hayes kennels on Canyon Drive in Portland are considered among the best in the country. . . . Before returning north Mr. and Mrs. Hayes will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Sperry (Adele Hayes) and young son in the bay city.

Commuting. . . . Mrs. Palmer Dawes (Mildred Roberts), in Portland this winter with her daughter and mother, Mrs. John J. Roberts, is teaching violin two days a week at Newburg and two at McMinnville. . . . She drives back and forth from their home in Laurelhurst.

WEDDING NOTES. . . . Simplicity marked the nuptials of Margaret Hardman and Otto Wilson today a week at Newburg and two at McMinnville. . . . Several hundred guests congratulating the newlyweds in the foyer of the Presbyterian church following the exchange of vows. . . . A stormy night with guests arriving with scarfs tied around their coiffures. . . . but inside a spring-like atmosphere with calla lilies and pink snapdragons. . . . Margaret, a sweet, happy bride, wearing champagne velveteen. . . . carrying a white prayer book marked with gorgeous large green orchids. . . .

From out-of-town. . . . Many college friends here for the occasion. . . . Louis and Marguerite Stutz of Hillsboro. . . . Edwin and Barbara McWain. . . . Rosalie and Leonard Ranton. . . . and the Frank Shepherds, all of Portland. . . . Mrs. Bruce Baxter, assisting at the reception. . . . The Edward Siegmunds here from Eugene. . . . and Otto's sister, Margaret (Mrs. Edward Post) of San Francisco who flew north. . . . She wore moonstone blue chiffon with red flowers in her dark hair. . . . Dr. and Mrs. Carl Hollingworth also here from Portland. . . . Mrs. Robert Brower of Seattle, who was to have lighted the tapers, didn't arrive as all planes were grounded.

MOVING WEST. . . . Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pickens ton trim. She wore a grey felt hat, brown accessories and ermine coat. Pinned to her suit were green and brown orchids. They will live in Stayton.

Regular no host luncheon meeting of the junior guild of the St. Paul's Episcopal church will be held Tuesday at 1 p. m. at the par-

(Mary Yeager) will be delighted to know they are going to live in Portland after March 1. . . . Bob will be superintendent of the Foundation Worsted Mill in Sellwood. . . . For the past seven years he has been with the American Viscose Co. in Philadelphia.

Accompanying them will be their sons, Robert and Richard. A new home . . . for Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Jr., and daughter, Julianne, who hope to move into their newly built home in the Green Hills district in Portland this week. . . . Their five-room house, all on one floor, is ideally situated on a hill with a grand view overlooking the Tualatin valley.

BRIEF NOTES. . . . On a ten-day jaunt to Denver and Kansas are Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Asa Lewelling. . . . They went east by train and will fly home.

Her visit means parties. . . . Mrs. Robert Cosgrove (Hester Davis) is arriving in Salem Friday from Idaho, Oct. Wilson. . . . Just before the party little Timmy Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, arrived at the door with a tiny corsage of roses, complete with miniature pin, for his hostess to wear on her birthday.

First corsage. . . . for Christy Busick, daughter of the Harold Busicks, who celebrated her third birthday on Wednesday. . . . Just before the party little Timmy Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, arrived at the door with a tiny corsage of roses, complete with miniature pin, for his hostess to wear on her birthday.

FOR THE PRESS. . . . Governor and Mrs. Earl Snell were Mrs. Daniel Fry's black gown supper in honor of the legislative press Thursday night. . . . Over forty gathered for the occasion. Informality prevailed with Ralph Watson, Paul Hauser and Eric Allen assisting the hostesses during the evening. . . . Incidentally, Paul has served as president of the Newspaper Guild in Portland the past year. . . . his wife, Janet, who is secretary to Rep. Anna Ellis, wore black with gold trim. . . .

Other costume notes. . . . Mrs. Larry Smyth of Portland, a striking brunette, wore black satin and an open crown hat encircled with pink flowers. . . . Good-looking Mrs. Louise Humphrey, also of Portland, in black and a peony red velvet flowered chapeau. . . . Mrs. Ralph Watson, who has as much vigor as the thirty-year-olds, in violet, the silk blouse, which originally had come from Paris, enhanced with beading. . . . Mrs. Daniel Fry's black gown adorned with wide ice blue satin cuffs. . . . and Mrs. George Flagg wearing a handsome grey knit dress, which she made herself. . . .

Regular no host luncheon meeting of the junior guild of the St. Paul's Episcopal church will be held Tuesday at 1 p. m. at the par-

Miss Avis Steimer To Wed

A number of Salem people will motor to Corvallis this afternoon for the wedding of Miss Avis Steimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Steimer of Salem, and William R. McBee, son of Mrs. Dorothy Moser of Corvallis, which will take place at the Episcopal church at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Charles Neville officiating.

Miss Marilyn Powell will sing and Mrs. Neville will be the accompanist. The Misses Barbara and Gloria McClintock of Salem, will light the tapers.

Mr. Steimer will give his brunette daughter in marriage. Her gown is of white slipper satin designed with a high neckline, fitted bodice with bustle bow, long sleeves and a full skirt which ends in a train. The veil of French net is edged in lace and is caught to a pearl beaded headpiece. She will carry a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Around her neck will be a string of baby pearls, the gift of the groom.

Miss Doris Dixon of Salem will be the maid of honor and will wear blue marquisette and carry pink carnations. Bridesmaids will be Miss Cathy Moran of Salem and Miss Helen Bunker of Corvallis, who will wear pink and carry colonial nosegays. The attendants will have matching shoulder veils caught to coronets of gardenias.

Wayne Roberts will be the groom's best man and ushers are Mrs. Joe McBee and Brutus Jacobs.

Mrs. Steimer will wear blue grey crepe gown with matching accessories. Mrs. Moser will attend her son's marriage in a dove grey dress with matching accessories. Their corsages will be of gardenias and rosebuds.

The wedding reception will be in the parish house with Mrs. James Furchner and Mrs. Ross Bunker in charge. Mrs. George McBee will cut the cake and pouring will be the bride's sisters, Mrs. Gaylord E. Felton and Mrs. Lawrence S. Chapman. Assisting will be Rep. Anna Randall, Barbara Sundet, Miriam Shellenberger and Gloria Myers of Salem, Mary Sandoz of Astoria and Dorothy Beach of Corvallis.

For going away the bride will wear a brown tailleur with matching accessories and a white orchid. The young couple will live in Corvallis.

Eastern Star social afternoon club will meet for a dessert luncheon at the Masonic temple at 1:15 o'clock. Cards and sewing will follow. Mrs. Arthur Utley heads the committee in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. David Eason will present her piano students in a musicale

Tuesday night at her South Church street home at 7:30 o'clock. Assisting will be Mrs. James Stone, flutist, who will be accompanied by Miss Alice Cray Brown.

CHARMODE Nu-Back
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

All-in-One

FOUNDATION

8<sup>98</sup>

Fit for a queen . . . the famous Nu-Back that lengthens as you move, sit or bend. Allows freedom of action, yet supports tiring muscles. Here in expertly tailored cotton and rayon, lace top, Talon zipper. Nude only. Sizes 34-44.

GIRDLE
2.98

BRASSIERE
1.25

Get yourself into smooth shape for new spring clothes. Elastic sides, Talon zip. 26-34.

Net lined, circular under-stitching for trim uplift. Fine cotton batiste. Sizes 32 to 38.

"Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back"

SEARS

484 State St.

Modern

Simplicity is the keynote of this modern living room group. It has poise and polish; the brightness and charm that is so characteristic of really GOOD modern. Best of all, in spite of its modern flavor, it has the timelessness of all simple and artistically correct things.

Three-piece sectional in rose or blue or corded velour in perfect harmony with the modern scheme.

Only 129.75

Two-piece sectional, upholstered in rose or chartreuse tapestry. A modern sofa for the ideal living room.

Only 119.00

FURNITURE DEPARTMENT
SECOND FLOOR

R. L. Elfstrom Co.
340 COURT

Visit our beautiful display rooms, where buyers shop with confidence.

Friendly service awaits you.