Vikings Stop Astoria, 36-35

Unruh's Gift Shot Proves Winning Point

ASTORIA, Feb. 8.-(Special)-A converted free throw by Forward Waldo Unruh in the last three seconds of play gave the Salem high Vikings a 36-35 hoop victory over the Astoria Fishermen here tonight. The win made it three out four for the Viks over the Fishermen this season. Astoria wen Friday night, 30-27 From the time Guard Dick Hendrie hit a 15 foot bucket in the first minute the Salems were always in front. Harold Hauk's crew held an 11-9 advantage at the first quarter mark, jumped the lead to 17-13 at the half, and enjoyed a 28-17 margin at the third quarter buzzer

A one-man show by Astoria's Grimberg almost pulled the Fishermen on top in the final stanza, however. Grimberg hit exactly six field goals in that eight minutes. collaring scoring honors for the evening with 16 points. Mase was high for Salem with eight. Takes the "Ouch!" Out of Shaving

Your face will feel completely new and different when you switch to velvet-touch, Micro-Sharp, CRAFTSMAN double-edge razor blades.

Yes—the secret of shaving luxury and comfort is a master made blade, so unbelievably sharp that it gets 'em off clean with just a few feather-touch strokes. And that's this once-over CRAFTSMAN!

Here's the secret:

This amazing new blade is made by experienced master blade makers—of the very finest Swedish

Chrome Steel—in a specially built factory equipped with improved automatic-control heat treating devices. The edges are multi-honed in oil—to give them super sharpness—actually stropped on leather same as your barber does. And to make sure that those fine edges touch nothing (not even the package they come in!) till they touch your face, each blade is anchor-wrapped.

For a wholly new, delightful experience in shaving, switch to The New Micro-Sharp CRAFTSMAN-no better blade was ever made.
