

Dinner and Luncheon Slated

A number of parties are on the social agenda for members of the legislative contingent.

Thursday night a group of representatives' wives are entertaining with a dinner party while their husbands attend the biennial dinner at Mt. Angel for which the business men's club is host.

Hostesses for the dinner will be Mrs. R. C. Frisbie of Baker, Mrs. Giles French of Moro, Mrs. E. Riddell Lage of Hood River, Mrs. C. L. Lieberman of Pendleton, Mrs. Fred A. Hellberg of Astoria, Mrs. Robert C. Gile of Roseburg and Mrs. Donald E. Heister of The Dalles.

The affair will be held in the Marine room of the Marion hotel with covers placed for forty wives of the house. The Valentine motif will be carried out in the decorations and appointments.

Mrs. Louise Palmer Weber of Portland has invited a dozen of her friends to luncheon Thursday afternoon at the Normandy Manor. The group includes a group of women who are being invited each session of the legislature.

Salem Man Weds Miss Schaefer

MT. ANGEL — Miss Leona Schaefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schaefer, became the bride of Leonard Schmitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmitz of Salem, at a double ring ceremony in St. Mary's Catholic church February 8. The Rev. Damian deities was celebrant of the nuptial high mass.

The organ was played by Miss Helen Keber, accompanying St. Mary's choir, Miss Pauline Saalfeld and Miss Estelle Baum who sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore ivory satin made with long sleeves and full skirt with court train. Her fingertip veil of tulle was held in place by a coronet of tulle. She carried a satin-covered missal topped with an orchid.

Miss Irene Schneider, cousin of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore blue silk crepe, matching Mary Stuart headress and carried pink snapdragons and carnations. Bridesmaids were her sisters, Mrs. E. H. Morgan and Mrs. Edward Swartz.

Best man was Wilbert Schaefer, brother of the bride. Norbert Schaefer and Paul Greiner were ushers.

Breakfast was served at the home of the bride.

At noon a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Salem. Covers were placed for 80. A cake flanked by snapdragons, daffodils and lighted tapers centered the bride's table. Serving were Miss Dolores Wells and Miss Alice Vogel.

The reception was held at the Memorial hall in Mt. Angel. Mrs. Alfred Jacobson of Seattle and Miss Joseph Schaefer Jr. of Vancouver were guests of honor. Assisting were Miss Rose Hauth, Miss Rita Schultz, Miss Mary Towse, Miss Bertha Hasing and Miss Dorothy Schneider.

For traveling the bride wore a pin stripe gray suit, black accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Schmitz graduated from Mt. Angel academy last June and Mr. Schmitz is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy.

The Lansing Neighbors Home Extension unit will meet Thursday, February 13, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. I. G. Lerman, 95 Sunnyside avenue, Salem. Don Rasmussen, assistant county agent, will conduct the program on "Lansing." He will discuss fundamental rules of landscaping, and specific practices suitable for this county. Home-makers in this community are invited to attend these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Goullet were hosts to members of their bridge club Sunday night at their country home. A late supper was served by the hosts.
