

Parties Fete Miss Norma Newgent

A busy bride-elect is Miss Norma Jean Newgent, who will be married on Valentine's Day to Robert Kuenzli, son of Mr. Frank Muhs of Vancouver, Wash., and B. N. Kuenzli of Salem. Miss Newgent is the attractive, brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Newgent.

The bride-to-be and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school. He served in the navy for two years and is now with Western Electric Co. Miss Newgent is employed at Miller Mercantile Co.

A round of parties are being given this week prior to her marriage. Tonight Mrs. David Nyberg and her mother, Mrs. Joseph Boucher, will be hostesses for a miscellaneous supper in honor of Miss Newgent at the Boucher home. A late supper will be served by the hostesses.

Honoring Miss Newgent will be Mesdames Guy C. Newgent, Edward Bowdler, Dale Newman, Jack Brazie, Effie Gooden, Misses Jean Gooden, Ruby Burnham, Betty Forsyth, Iola Turner, Rosabelle Ross, Evangeline McKinley, Claudia Suchy, Margorie Smith, Shirley Lewis, Frances Hertz, Dorothy Boyce, Delphine Riney, Shirley Boucher, Barbara Brundage and the hostesses.

Tuesday night Miss Newgent was complimented at a bridal shower when Miss Shirley Hall entertained at her home on South 15th street. Thirty-five guests, including the employees of Miller Mercantile Co., honored the bride-to-be with a shower.

Assisting the hostess were her mother, Mrs. Ferdig Hall, Mrs. Frank Wallace, Miss Amanda Schwabauer, Miss Emma Lou King, Mrs. Fern Dart and Miss Margaret Badger. The Valentine theme was carried out in the decorations and a late supper was served.

The home of Mrs. Robert E. Pattison on Kingwood avenue was the scene of a bridal party for Miss Newgent Monday night. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Donald Kuhn, Mrs. Joe Griffin and Mrs. Fred Gibson. Fifty-three guests attended and honored the bride-elect with a shower.

Arrangements of daphne and winter greens were used about the rooms. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

A Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Dale Shepherd will be hostess for a Valentine party on Friday afternoon at her Marion street home in compliment to a group of young matrons.

Guests have been invited to a dessert luncheon with several hours of contract bridge following.

Deafened Now Hear With Tiny Single Unit

Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device so small that it fits in the hand and enables thousands to enjoy sermons, music and friendly company in a new way. Accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine of the American Medical Association. This device does not require separate battery pack, battery wire, case or garment to bulge or weigh you down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The makers of Beltone, Dept. 6087, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny.
