

Valley Briefs

Silverton—New registrants at the GI flight training at the local Flying Service are Denzel Legard, Henry F. Jackson, Ted Finlay, and Howard Eggiman. Dale A. Krug was the first to complete his flying and received his private license after a flight test given by flight examiner Bob Waldren. Krug was the first GI student to solo at the local airport.

Dallas—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Crane at the Dalles hospital February 10; a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Marsh at the Dalles hospital February 12. Mr. and Mrs. Milan Pond of Grand Ronde announce the birth of a son at the Bartell hospital, February 10.

Turner—Members of The Link club will meet with Mrs. Guy Chapman, Friday, February 21.

Roberts—Twenty-four pupils in the primary room had a Valentine party Friday and observed Roger Hayden's birthday with a decorated cake.

Idanha—Mrs. Charles T. Hase-man has been moved from the hospital in Portland to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chester Raines in LaCom.

Turner—The grange home economics club will meet with Mrs. George Crume, Thursday, February 20. Mrs. Crume is president of the group.

Idanha—Louis A. Hill of Everett, Wash., is visiting his uncle Wilbur T. Chesnut. The E. A. Roycrofts of Portland were other guests recently at Chesnut's.

Gervais—Mrs. Mabel Marsh of The Dalles has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Sam H. Brown.

Turner—Methodist WSCS met Friday with Mrs. L. M. Small. Mrs. Joe Holt will be hostess March 14, the next meeting. Twenty members and guests were present this week.

Idanha—The Ed Hansens visited in Tillamook this week. De-Wain Wolfe has returned home after two years in the U.S. Marine corps and will be discharged in a few weeks.

Gervais—District meeting of Eastern Star chapters will be held here March 7. Included will be Woodburn, Donald, and Gervais chapters. A school of instruction was held here last week.

Idanha—Ann Garland of Portland suffered the fracture of her arm in a fall while visiting her sister, Mrs. E. V. Collins.

Dallas—Margaret Domes, advisor for the Dalles high school Tri-Y and Eileen En-tad, delegate went to Portland for the Y-teen Mid-Winter Conference.

Silverton—Bethany circle of Immanuel guild meets February 20 with Mrs. Albert Overlund.

Dallas—Glenn Fair is at Dalles hospital for fractured bones suffered when a railroad tie fell on his foot while he was at work at the Willamette Valley Lumber company. Mrs. Charles Mitchell is being treated for a broken hip sustained in a fall at her home.

Keizer—A no-host, 6:30 dinner and social evening will be held Tuesday night at Keizer grange. Members of the social committee are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown who will be assisted by Mrs. N. Francisco, grange lecturer.

West Salem—An open meeting of West Salem grange will be held at the city hall Tuesday at 6:30 when a no host dinner will be served and later discussion of legislative measures will be held. All persons interested are invited.

Stayton—Mrs. G. R. Phillips barely avoided hitting a herd of five deer when she was driving across the Marion-Linn county bridge in the early dusk one night this week. She was on her way to a show here and was accompanied by her son and daughter.

Pedee—Mrs. M. Bouillet of Denver, is visiting her son, Morris Bouillet and family at Simpson's camp. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Draper and daughter of Oakland, Calif. visited his sister, Mrs. Frank Hall and family this week.

Aumsville—Ednor Farnen of Salem will open a hardware store here to be known as Farnen's Hardware. Farnen was associated with Salem-Tillamook auto freight until recently.

Sunnyside—Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Castle and their children, Linda, Richard and Jon, were entertained at dinner on Mrs. Castle's birthday by the C. L. Taylors.

Pedee—Earl Hanna have sold their place to M. Henker of Salem and he has installed a lath mill on the railroad which crosses the place. This is the third lath mill, others being owned by Luckimute Logging Co., and the Simpson Lumber Co. has one on Ritner creek.

Mt. Angel—The TNT teachers club will meet at the Central Howell school on February 18 at 6 p.m. for no host supper.

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gooch were surprised Wednesday when presented with a gift from their children on their 51st wedding anniversary.

DALLAS—Jack Spencer, president of the Silverton chamber of commerce, with William Block, Errol Ross, Morris Van Sommer, John Main and Clint Wieby were guests of the Dallas chamber of commerce, Friday. Seth Thompson, state fire marshal, spoke. The local group has been asked to conduct the 1947 Red Cross drive here. A. V. Oliver of Rickreall, is the county chairman.

Jefferson—Rev. A. E. Bashford of the Evangelical United Brethren church has announced special meetings will start Friday, February 21, and continue nightly at 7:30 p.m. through March 2. Rev. A. F. Grissom of Portland will be evangelist.

Silverton—Jim Wyatt, KOIN news reporter, will be the guest speaker Monday at Rotary club.

COLOTYLE

To make tired, unsightly bathrooms glamorous. The essential treatment for new construction. Everlasting washable beauty. No more painting. Installed complete by our own Colotyle craftsmen.

R.L. Elfstrom Co.
340 Court St. Dial 9221

cooking's fun

with the

EKCO pressure cooker

Complete with Serving Cover
14.50

A STAR IN THE KITCHEN SHINES AT THE TABLE!

You'll cook dozens of good things in the Ekco Pressure Cooker in minutes (instead of hours!) then serve them right in the cooker—deliciously hot. The Ekco has a special serving cover, in addition to the one you cook with—the "ensemble" solves all your problems—cooking and serving, too! Extra large—full 4½ quart capacity—yet so compact it saves space on stove and shelf. Of fine drawn aluminum, mirror finished to sparkle on your table.

Appliance Department
R.L. Elfstrom Co.
340 Court Street

Bring SPRING into your room

ELIMINATE the drabness of winter . . . capture Spring's abundance of beauty and color in the decoration of your home. We are here with our staff of highly trained experts to offer without obligation advice and decorator service in planning a more beautiful home. It is not with us a matter of mere formality of selling over the counter, but a far greater pleasure in serving you because, "to make your house a home" has become a science that cannot be duplicated by methods of the past.

OUR buyers have carefully combed the nation's markets to bring you only substantial merchandise WITHOUT the taint of "wartime" manufacture. Let us visualize the above scene for more gracious living. We have recently received a five-piece Maple group with the flavor of New England in today's modern design priced in a range that cannot be ignored. A roomy sofa with matching club chair, two end book tables with harmonizing coffee table. With our convenient payment plan this group can be delivered to your home for

$177.50
$30.00 DOWN
AND FIFTEEN MONTHS TO PAY

Furniture Department

Second Floor

R.L. Elfstrom Co.

340 COURT

ALUMINUM VENETIAN BLINDS
Guaranteed. Baked on enamel. Durable, lightweight. Easy to care for.
FREE ESTIMATES
R.L. Elfstrom Co.
340 Court St.

If it's Glass We Have it!
Comprehensive stocks, plus facilities and real glaziers enable us to offer an unexcelled service in every branch of the GLASS BUSINESS. When it's glass—call US.

DON BROWN GLASS
ELFSTROM'S
340 COURT ST. TEL 9221