

Volunteers to Be Organized

SWEGLE—Plans were made Tuesday for organization of volunteer assistants on the five east Salem districts to help the public health nurses of Marion county. The PTA of this district has assisted the health program for some time, and started organizing the central east Salem service months ago.

Following the Tuesday meeting, at which Mrs. Bernice Yearly and Betty Schloppel represented the health department, it was announced that clinics will be held twice a year, April 3 and November 15, this year. Children of five and younger will be examined, with children to enter school in the fall taking summer check-up examinations at the health department in Salem at one of the weekly clinics.

The volunteers will attend to non-medical details including keeping records, making appointments, arranging transportation and assisting at the clinics. The volunteers will be headed in districts by Mrs. Studley, chairman, with four helpers from each district. One hour will be devoted at each district beginning as follows: Swegle, 9 a.m.; Fruitland, 10 a.m.; Middle Grove, 11 a.m.; Rickey, 1 and Auburn, 2:30.

Present from the districts Tuesday were Mrs. J. P. Wilcox, Mrs. John Schafer and Mrs. Lewis Patterson, Middle Grove; Mrs. Fred Schreengost, Mrs. Harvey Meyer and Mrs. Oliver Rickman, Rickey; Mrs. Stanley Fagg, Mrs. Cecil Miller and Mrs. Kenneth Runner, Fruitland; Mrs. George Standley, Mrs. L. H. Allison, Mrs. Charles Jayne and Mrs. Cecil Frame, Swegle. Mrs. William Hartley will act as publicity chairman.
