$20,000 Libel Suit

Suit charging libel and asking $20,000 damages was filed against George Putnam, for the Capital Journal Printing Co., and Ray Moore, 3720 Portland rd., by John E. and Robert B. Marr, local radio repairmen, in Marion county circuit court Tuesday.

The complaint states the Capital Journal published a story headed "Shirley Work, Radio Racket" in its Dec. 4, 1946, issue, quoting Moore and citing alleged alarm of local radio repairmen over advertisements giving a telephone number for free pick-up radio repair. The complaint alleges the article commented: "The last the owner sees of his radio."

The Marrs' suit contends the article was false and libelous and that they were operating a bona fide business.
