Mid-Winter Travelers

Travelers come and go so fast these days that it is hard to keep track of who is home and who is leaving.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Jarman and J. N. Chambers are leaving Sunday to drive south to Santa Barbara, Santa Monica to spend the ensuing month. They will also spend some time in Palm Springs and the desert resort, La-Quinta. While in Santa Monica the Jarman's where they stay each winter. Mrs. Chambers plans to join her husband in the south later next month.

Mrs. Winston Williams left by plane Thursday night for Washington, D.C. to join Captain Williams. She will remain in the east until her army husband sails for Europe sometime in March. Mrs. Williams, who came west with Captain Williams at Christmas, has been at the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Holman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Asa Lewelling returned home Wednesday from a two weeks trip which took them as far east as Wichita, Kansas. They went by train and in Wichita picked up two planes which they flew home. En route west the two couples stopped several days in El Paso, Tucson, Juarez, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Keizer community church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. David Hamm in West Salem. Mrs. P. McFarland presided and Mrs. M. R. Russell of Corvallis led the devotions. Fourteen were present and refreshments were served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Russell.

Regular meeting of Barbara Fritchie Tent No. 2, Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War will be held tonight at the Salem Woman's clubhouse at 8 o'clock. Special explanation of the national project will be made.

Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel presided at a bridge luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her home for members of her club. Mrs. Jane Humphrey was an additional guest.

Military Ball Highlight of Weekend

Marion county reserve officers are busy completing plans for their first post-war formal military ball Saturday night at the Armory. The affair is invitational and dancing will be from 9 to 12 o'clock.

The patriotic motif will be carried out in the decorations with a false ceiling of red, blue and white. All officers, who have not received their tickets or invitations, may obtain them that night at the armory by appearing in uniform. Invitations were sent this week to members of the state legislature and their wives, who will be special guests.

Major Reginald Williams has been appointed adjutant of the receiving line which will include President of the Senate and Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Speaker of the House and Mrs. John Hall, Chief Justice and Mrs. George Rossman, State Treasurer and Mrs. Leslie Scott, Mayor and Mrs. Robert Elfstrom, Col. and Mrs. Carle Abrams, Col. and Mrs. George Wahl and Major and Mrs. Ward Davis. Colonel Abrams will serve as marshal of the grand march which will begin at 10 o'clock. Major Reginald Williams will be in charge of the march and assisting will be Major Vinton Green, Major Gordon Skinner, Major Robert Phillips, Major Homer Goulet and Capt. Charles Zerzan. Entertainment before the ball.

Capt. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts are entertaining a group of their friends at their Jefferson street home before the ball. Guests will include Lt. and Mrs. Harold Olinger, Lt. and Mrs. Robert Joseph, Major and Mrs. Homer Goulet, Lt. Comm. and Mrs. Robert Needham and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers, jr. of Oswego will be here for the ball as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Powers and their daughter, Diana, are visiting here this week at the home of her parents, the Adam Engels.

Beaver Auxiliary Inspection Held

Annual inspection of the Beaver Navy auxiliary No. 7775 was conducted Tuesday night with District President Mrs. Leon Hansen officiating and Mrs. Sylvia Bryan, auxiliary president, presiding.

Mrs. Lloyd Palmer and Mrs. Morris Crothers were initiated. Mrs. Arvid Parsons, also a new member, was pledged at the February 4 meeting.

A report was given by Mrs. Jessie Sanders on the veterans hospital in Portland. The auxiliary 7775 will make and contribute a number of cushion covers, reported as needed at the hospital.

Other visitors were Mrs. Gertrude Beal, district secretary and members of the district drill team. Movies were shown by the post following the meeting, and refreshments were later served in the recreation room to all visitors and the post.

Among those leaving today for Eugene to attend the press conference will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schenk and Miss Alene Phillips.

First Birthday Party

Johnny Woodburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodburn of Seattle, was honored on his first birthday Tuesday at the home of his grandparents, the John Woodburns on Lancaster Drive.

Honoring Johnny were Joy and Jerry Chapin, Sharron Riffe, Guy and Tony Keppinger, Gaylen and Gary Van Cleave, Mrs. Harold Woodburn, Mrs. Lucy Clark, Ann Brandt, Mrs. Pauline Malin, Mrs. Mary Chapin, Mrs. Fern Riffe, Mrs. Leona Keppinger, Mrs. Ruth Van Cleave, Mrs. Leola Worden and Mrs. John Woodburn.

Duo Pianists Please Crowd

Waller hall was completely filled with listeners on Wednesday night when two small pianists, Gordon and Wayne DeMott of Portland played an evening's concert on two pianos.

The 12 year old duo pianists looked very small as they sat before the large pianos and played a program which took something over an hour. A large portion of the audience was young members of the Salem Junior Federated Music clubs, the sponsoring group, but even the adults enjoyed the playing.

Though young, and not even looking over 12 years, the pianists played with mature technique, a program of works of adult players.

Opening with the "Sicilienne" of Bach and following with "Awake, the Voice Commands" by two players continued with the andante from Haydn's Surprise symphony.

Their playing of the Mozart concerto in E flat, with four movements, was done with fine shading. This number they will play with the Portland Junior Symphony.

Their next number, concerto in C major by Jean Williams was my favorite, though the Mozart concerto was perhaps the more technical. This lively and interesting number was in three movements.

The final selection was Arthur Benjamin's "Jamaican Rumba", which though it seemed to appeal little to the critics of their previous concerts in British Columbia and Seattle, caught the fancy of the young audience and brought applause for their work. Their final encore was "Flight of the Bumble Bee".

The young pianists gave the impression of being completely confident and perfectly teamed. Mrs. Nellie Tholen, Portland, their teacher received congratulations with them at a meeting at Nohl-gren's later.

The Woman's Cheerful club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. C. Russell. A salad luncheon was served and cards were in play later. The next meeting was announced for March 5 at the Gold Arrow when a 12:30 dinner will be served. Twelve members and three visitors, Mrs. Fern Run-corn, Nyssa, Mrs. John Henderson and Mrs. George Martis were there.

Mrs. Clinton Standish entertained members of her club at bridge and a late supper Thursday night at her North Church street home.

Many Attend Reception Thursday

One of the outstanding events on the pre-spring calendar was the large reception for which Dr. and Mrs. George Herbert Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert were hosts Thursday night at University House in honor of Mayor and Mrs. Robert Lewis Elfstrom. Hundreds called during the evening to greet Salem's new mayor and his wife.

Opening the door and welcoming guests in the hallway were Ann, Beth, Rosemary and Alceita Gilbert, Patricia Elfstrom, Margaret Alice and Sara Louise Smith.

Gardner Knapp and Roy Harland introduced to the receiving line. Mrs. Elfstrom wore a stunning model of lime green crepe fashioned with draped waistline and shoulders caught with gold clips. Pinned to her gown was a lavender orchid. Mrs. Smith chose a handsome gown of black velvet with a shell pink chiffon frill edging the square neckline and pointed cuffs. Her flowers were violets and freesias. Mrs. Gilbert's attractive pearl grey velvet dress was designed with ruffling over the shoulder and around the low waistline. In her coiffure were red carnations.

Gorgeous arrangements of spring blossoms and flowers were used about the spacious rooms. In the hallway and on the stairway ledge were pink plum blossoms and greens. A bouquet of plum blossoms and calla lilies was on the piano and other arrangements of pink and white tulips, blossoms and greens were used about the rooms.

The serving table was centered with a beautiful crystal pergne filled with white roses, pink and white camellias and hyacinths flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabras. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mrs. Chester W. Hamblin, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Mrs. George Rossman.

Past Matrons of Chadwick chapter, OES, will hold their regular dinner meeting tonight at the Golden Pheasant. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lucille Sweeney, Mrs. A. N. Copenhaver, Mrs. Edith Schroeder, Mrs. David B. Reavis, Mrs. Eleanor Steiner and Mrs. Frank Minto.

War Mothers Dined

American War Mothers were served a no-host dinner Tuesday, their regular meeting day, by a committee including Mrs. Minnie Humphrey, Mrs. Ben Randall, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Carrie Chase, Mrs. A. A. Lee and Mrs. Hulda Bradford. Col. George Sandy was the speaker for the afternoon meeting. His subject was the help given the state to veterans.

Formal Party For Court

Members and guests of Hanna Rosa Court enjoyed a formal party Saturday night at the Masonic Temple.

Those in charge of arrangements were Mr. and Mrs. I. A. DeFrance, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Fallin, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Herring, Mr. and Mrs. H. Richardson Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Barr and Mrs. Iva Bushey.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. Jess L. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiper, Miss Wiline Wiper, Miss Barbara Crawford, Miss Virginia Wilcox and Russell J. Harris.
