

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

MRS. FRED GAST (Jessen Miller)

For Past Presidents . . .

Honor guests at the Salem Junior Woman's club annual past president's banquet Monday night at Normandy Manor will be Mrs. Fred C. Gast, pictured above, the immediate past president, Mrs. Roy Mink, president, will preside and present Mrs. Gast with the past president's pin. The banquet is scheduled for 6:45 o'clock.

The theme will be "The Old Antique Shop" and Mrs. Arthur Roethlin will speak and illustrate her talk with antiques, china and glass, also showing new materials and how they are used in the modern home with antiques. The tables will be decorated with spring flowers and candles. The programs are made out of Pennsylvania dutch wall paper in the shape of cream mugs. The musical program will include solos by Miss Emelyn Frazer with Mrs. James Smart accompanying and also playing piano selections.

A special guest will be Mrs. Emory Ingham of Portland, former extension secretary. The club was organized in 1934 with Mrs. Leonard Kiphart serving as the first president. Other past presidents who will be present are Mesdames Clinton Stenseth, Lillian Helton, Delbert Schwabhauser, James C. Pike, Fred Gast, and Joseph A. Carlson and Thorne H. Hammond of Portland.

Social Events Varied . . .

The coming week is marked with many social affairs. First is the informal tea on Monday for which the Oregon State college matters will be hostesses at the south Salem home of Mrs. Carl W. Emmens at 410 Hawk street. All Oregon State matters are invited through the press to call between 2 and 4 o'clock. The affair will honor the past presidents and charter members.

Nile Ceremonial

A number of Salem Daughters of the Nile members and their husbands will be in Portland Wednesday for the Nile ceremonial at the Nile Temple. The women will be joined in the evening by their husbands for dinner and dancing at the Masonic temple.

Among those attending from here will be Mesdames, Haris Lutz, Paul Hale, David Cameron, Parker Laneberry, Roy Houck, David Wright, Estill Brunk, Claude Post, L. M. Dobyns, L. R. Tweedie, Richard A. Meyer, Ward R. Davis, Russell Beutler, William Newmyer, Jacob Fuhrer, Roy Stewart, Loran Spaulding, Robert McKwan and Russell Bright.

For A Visitor

A much feted visitor in the capital is Mrs. Robert Cosgrove of Indio, Calif., who is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex W. Davis, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Milton L. Meyers will entertain with an informal luncheon at her Court street home for the pleasure of the visitor. Covers will be placed for nine guests. Wednesday Mrs. Cosgrove and Mrs. Rosalie Foster will be in Portland as guests of their Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters.

Tillicum Dance

Slated for Friday night the Tillicum club's monthly formal dance in the Mirror and Marine rooms of the Marion hotel. A buffet dinner will be served with dancing following to the music of Guy Albin's orchestra. Active as hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Woodrow, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Viesko and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Erickson.

Wedding Plans . . .

Popular March bride-elect is Miss Marie Ann Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lester Newman, who this weekend is telling plans for her wedding to Donald Orville Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Wells of Independence. The nuptials will be performed the afternoon of March 9 at 4 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Sam Huntington will officiate. Mr. Kenneth Rich will be the organist and Miss Patricia Vincent of Salem, Calif., will sing for the young bride. Her sister's wedding, held on the same day will be Miss Roberta Meyer and Miss Cora G. Clark.

Mr. Newman will give his daughter in marriage. She has as bridesmaids Miss Mary Kathryn Finney of Hood River, to be her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Grace Shields and Miss Barbara Hoadley.

Hood River will serve as his brother's best man and serving the guests will be Robert and Kelly Sedgwick and Hal Falley of Portland and Chester Miller of Newport.

A receiving reception will follow, at the Salem Women's clubhouse.

A Surprise Shower

Saturday afternoon Miss Faye Schneider and Miss Grace Shields were hostesses for a surprise kitchen shower in honor of Miss Newman at the Carl Schneider home on South Winter street. Guests were invited to a dessert luncheon. The buffet table was centered with a straw hat filled with pastel spring flowers and streamers.

Honoring Miss Newman were the Misses Carroll Gragg, Roberta Meyer, Mary Parker, Jeanne and Janice Myers, Margaret Jane Emmons, Anita Huger, Jeanne DeMytt, Marilyn Hjort, Peggy Moritz, Geraldine Nelson, Barbara Hoadley and the hostesses.

Date Is Set . . .

Wedding bells will ring Saturday, April 12 for Miss Dorothy Hardie and John R. Hay whose engagement was announced in January. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hardie and her fiance is the son of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. Arthur D. Hay.

The couple will exchange marriage vows at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 8 o'clock with the Rev. George H. Swift officiating. A reception will follow the ceremony at the South Liberty street home of Judge and Mrs. Hay.

Tidbits of News . . .

Au revoirs will be said this week to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hammond and daughter, Constance, who are moving Tuesday to Portland. They have purchased a home in the Eastmoreland district. Mr. Hammond is the new state liquor commissioner.

Expected home tonight from a short motor trip to San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Chambers and Miss Dorothea Steuseloff.

Mrs. Winstanley Jenks and daughter, Phyllis are leaving by plane Tuesday for Klamath Falls to spend a week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rosina H. Eskin. Mr. Jenks will join his family in southern Oregon next weekend and will accompany them home on March 3.

Celebrate Birthday

Werner Brown was surprised on his birthday Saturday morning when a group of friends arrived for the weekend at their beach home at Seal Rocks. Spending the weekend at the resort are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herrell, Mr. and Mrs. James Milton Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvis and the Browns.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm are spending the weekend of their cabin on the Little North Fork of the Santiam.

Legislative Whirl . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Numerous of informal events are on the social calendar in the next fortnight for members of the legislative contingent.

Monday wives of the Multnomah county delegation of the house will entertain at luncheon at the Lion's Den in honor of wives of representatives.

Hostesses for the affair will be Mesdames Alex G. Perry, John M. Bates, J. E. Bennett, Robert A. Bennett, F. H. Dammach, John Dickson, Robert E. Dunaway, John F. Gantenbein, John H. Hill, Joseph E. Harvay, Pat Izquierdo and Rudie Wilhelm, Jr.

Two Luncheons

Mrs. W. F. Logiza is entertaining with two informal luncheons this week at Holladay school. On Monday her guests will be Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett of Klamath Falls, Mrs. John H. Hill of Portland, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Wallace Carson and Mrs. Harry Bell. On Friday Mrs. Logiza will be hostess at luncheon for Mrs. Ford Snell, Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, Jr., Mrs. Paul McKee of Portland, Mrs. Neel Benson of Portland and Mrs. George Barnes.

Dinners Slated

The senate secretaries will be entertained at their biennial party Monday night at the home of Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding. Dinner will be at 6:30 with an informal evening following. Hostesses are Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. R. S. Krazon, Mrs. Floyd Query, Mrs. Howard Conkle and Mrs. Robert Brennan. Special guests will be Mrs. Marshall Cornett and Mrs. C. C. Chapman.

Miss Lorraine Conlee of Portland, who is here during the session, will be a dinner hostess Thursday night at the Marion hotel. Her guests will be wives of members of the house and senate committee on medicine, pharmacy and dentistry.

Mrs. Scott Hostess

One of the larger events scheduled for next month will be the 12:30 o'clock luncheon for which Mrs. Leslie Scott, wife of the state treasurer, will be hostess on Thursday, March 6 at Normandy Manor. Over a hundred guests will be invited.

Visiting in the capital is Mrs. Robert Cosgrove (Hester Davis) of Indio, Calif., who is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex W. Davis, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Davis. She will be here until the first of March. (Kennell-Ellis)

Adding her name to the list of brides elect is Miss Marie Lindstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Lindstrom, Sr., whose betrothal to Donald B. Eshleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Eshleman has been announced. The wedding will be in May. (Jessen-Miller)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuenzli (Norma Jean Newgent) who were married on February 14 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Newgent. The groom is the son of Mrs. Frank Muhs of Vancouver. (Jessen-Miller)

Miss Lorna Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Arnold, whose engagement to Robert Wagers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Wagers, was revealed on February 8. No wedding plans have been made. (Kennell-Ellis)

Bride-elect Doris Elizabeth Buller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dozier of Pleasant Hill, whose betrothal to Richard C. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Wilson of Salem, has been announced. The wedding is planned for spring. (Fahly photo, Eugene)