

Morini in Concert on Thursday

On Thursday night, another of the fine concerts under the sponsorship of the Salem Community Concert association will be given at the Salem high school auditorium. The artist, third in the series of five attractions, is Erica Morini, one of the finest contemporary violinists. The program is open to members of the association only, no tickets are available at the door.

Beginning her musical studies at the age of four, she made her debut in Leipzig at the age of eight. After a long series of European concerts, Miss Morini made her American debut at Carnegie hall when still in her early teens. In her first season she gave four recitals in New York, within six weeks. After a coast to coast tour, she returned to Europe two years later and toured that continent, the orient and Australia for the next seven years.

She has toured the United States more than 15 times and has appeared with as many as one thousand orchestras.

Town and Gown will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Darlene Albert will give a play and Mrs. Denise Murray will sing. Tea will be served following the meeting and program.

Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers will be hosts at their country home at dinner tonight in honor of the birthdays of her mother, Mrs. E. A. McElvain and Roma C. Hunter. Others present will be Mrs. McElvain, Mrs. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Lietz.

Luncheon for Club

Mrs. Gerald Lappen was hostess to the Dine and Do club at a luncheon meeting Thursday. Present were Mrs. John L. Sloan, Mrs. Lloyd Wood, Mrs. Porter McFarland, Mrs. Walter Conboy, Mrs. Lawrence Bagger, and DeLore, Mrs. Phillip Andereg, Mrs. Deibert Goode, Mrs. H. A. Strachan, Mrs. A. R. Lappen, Mrs. John Derrick and Mrs. R. B. Sipprell. The Feb. 27th meeting will be with Mrs. Bagger.

Varsity Ball On Friday

Highlighting the social calendar for Willamette university students this coming weekend will be the club's first annual Varsity ball Friday night in the school gymnasium.

A feature will be the announcement of the queen of the W club. Contestants for the queen are Daphne Lekas, Joan Cloudy, Sally Grable, Nan Preede and Enid Lyman, all freshmen chosen by W club members as the most glamorous coeds. The selection of the queen will remain a mystery until the first intermission at the formal dance, when the queen will be revealed and will lead the first waltz with her escort. Her court of four princesses and their escorts will then join her and the gold football and baseball charms will be presented to the court. The queen will also be given a wrist watch. Only members of the W club will choose the queen.

Glenn Woodry's orchestra will play for dancing from 9 to 12 o'clock. The dance is an all-student body affair and the faculty is invited to attend.

Delta Zeta alumnae will be entertained Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Floyd Bowers on North 15th street at 8 o'clock for a dessert supper. Mrs. Hugh Morrow will be the co-hostess.

Miss Bach Now Mrs. Hagg

St. Joseph's Catholic church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Maxine Bach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bach, to Kenneth C. Hagg, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Hagg, all Salem, Saturday at 9 o'clock. Father Gerald Linahen officiated. Wayne Meusey was the organist and Mrs. Vince Rodakowski sang.

For her wedding the bride chose a heaven pink crepe dress fashioned with cap sleeves and peplum embellished with pink pearl embroidery. She wore long pink gloves and a pink hat with lavender and pink flowers. Pinned to her shoulder was a lavender orchid and she carried a white prayer book. Mr. Bach gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Joseph J. Schuetz, jr. was her sister's only attendant. She wore an aqua crepe dress with cap sleeves and peplum and long aqua gloves. She carried a nosegay of white bouvardia centered with pink carnations and in her hair was a coronet of pink carnations.

Donald Hagg of Portland was his brother's best man and ushers were Willis Bach, Virgil Parker and Joseph J. Schuetz, jr.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bach selected a powder blue two piece crepe ensemble with navy accessories and corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Hagg attended her son's marriage in a two piece black crepe dress with matching sequin trim and pink inset at the neckline. Her accessories were black and her flowers gardenias.

A wedding breakfast was held at the Golden Pheasant with covers placed for 30.

When the couple left on the wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., the bride was wearing a white top coat. They will return to Salem to live, at home at 1125 Cross street.

Stylist Will Speak

Miss Eileen Meeen, stylist from Bedell's in Portland, will be the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of Women of Rotary on Monday afternoon at the Golden Pheasant at one o'clock. Miss Meeen is buyer of costume suits and dresses, traveling to the markets in New York and Los Angeles several times each year. Before coming to Portland she was with the Emporium in San Francisco. Members are asked to bring guests to hear Miss Meeen talk on spring fashions. Mrs. Josephine Albert Spaulding will sing a group of selections. Mrs. Homer Smith, jr., will preside at the business session.

Health Subject For Banquet

"Health and Safety" will be the subject of James E. Wiles' address at the dinner meeting of Salem's Business and Professional Women's club, at Nohlgren's Tuesday at 6:30. Wiles, formerly an officer in the navy, is assistant director of safety service of the Multnomah county chapter of the American Red Cross. He will be
