Bridge Luncheons

Mrs. Keith Brown and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson will be hostesses for two bridge luncheons this week at the former's home on Fairmount Hill. Sixteen guests have been invited to luncheon today and a similar affair will be given on Thursday. Arrangements of flowering plum, quince, forsythia and camellias will provide the decorative note.

Clubs to Meet
Mrs. Estill Brunk has invited members of her club to a dessert bridge this afternoon at her home on North 21st street. Mrs. Robert Duraway of Portland will be a special guest.

A hostess tonight will be Mrs. Ray Webber, who has bidden her club to a dessert supper with bridge following. Mrs. James Clough will be an additional guest.

YW Board Invites New Members

A campaign by the Young Women's Christian association to build membership is moving smoothly in its early phases. Mrs. Carl Halverson and Mrs. Norman Williams, co-chairmen of the membership committee, told the YWCA board at its regular monthly meeting. Mrs. W. Wells Baum was elected to membership on the board.

Twenty-two workers now comprise the membership committee and it was said more will be added. The directors were challenged by Mrs. C. W. Barker to obtain as many memberships as the campaigners.

Any woman may volunteer to join the YW, without invitation. Mrs. John R. Caughell, treasurer.

Mrs. B. F. Williams, chairman of the Salem Y, participation in the national Round-the-World Reconstruction fund, asked directors by personal solicitation to raise approximately $200 to complete the Salem quota for the fund.
