April Cancer Control Month

Citing cancer as the most deadly disease yet unconquered, Gov. Earl Snell has designated April as Cancer Control month, and urged the people of Oregon to support the American Cancer society in its campaign of education, service and research. During World War II from Pearl Harbor to V-J day 280,000 American lives were lost in combat, yet in the same period 607,000 other Americans lost their lives to cancer, Governor Snell declared. The attack is through research and education, and a great national program has been developed to carry on the battle against the disease, Snell said in asking support of the American Cancer society.

School News

By Donna Carr

A Portograph machine has been installed recently in the office at Salem high school to be used in making prints of permanent record cards to send grades and credits to colleges and other schools. The machine is expected to save considerable time formerly spent in copying such reports. Co-chairmen Donna Lawrence and Jean Madison have announced that plans are already under way for the senior class assembly at Salem high school. Seniors have already supplied information to the committee as to their future plans and material for the class will, assisting the two children are Bob Goffrier, Barbara Smith, Janice Middleton and Bill Hill. Working on the baccalaureate are Alice Barrick, Bob Miller and Louise Ulvin.

The French club at Salem high under the advisement of Miss Mildred Christenson, is sending a weekly package to Boulogne-Sur-Mer, a small French town, hard-hit by the ravages of the war. Wool clothing and food make up the bulk of the packages sent.

Leslie Junior High

Next event in the interclass rivalry at Leslie junior high school is a talent show contest among the three grades. The ninth grade show has been dated for Thursday with Miss Helen Fletcher and Miss Vivian Carr as faculty advisors.

The eighth grade program will be presented on April 17, with Donald Dawson and Miss Amanda Hargis directing, and the seventh graders will perform on April 25, with Mrs. Emma Wasson, Mrs. Fay Mort and Miss Anna Niles in charge.

The Leslie exchange program, to be presented to students of Parrish junior high April 22, will have for its theme, "This is Leslie." The program will present a composite picture of the school's administration, curriculum and activities and will include approximately 125 students. The production will be presented to Leslie students on April 18 and will be repeated in May at the second annual Leslie spring open house.

Ferry Schedule At Astoria Revised

Unusual Accidents Reported from Zena

ZENA—Jack Muyskens, 10, son of the Harvey Muyskens, suffered severe burns on his hands when he attempted a premature Fourth of July celebration this week. The large firecracker exploded in his hands tearing the flesh of one hand.

Mike Camillor, 3-year-old son of the Joe Camillors, was bitten for the second time by his dog, "Butch," this week, suffering an increase of $340,988 in net income. Taxes applicable to Oregon were $4,536,979, compared with $4,180,302 the previous year.

vere lacerations of his eyelid. The parents believe the last attack by the dog was due to the boy's tendency to play rough with "Butch." The first unusual accident in a series reported in this neighborhood recently was that in which Mrs. H. D. Burns suffered severe infection in her right arm from a bite by her cat which sunk its teeth in her forearm and proved difficult to dislodge.

Pure vitamin D₃ increased

Mothers ask your doctor about Darigold, that superior evaporated milk from Darigold Farms. It's such good milk your baby should have it. Pure Vitamin D₃ increased and homogenized for easy digestion by tiny tummies. Quality guaranteed always.

100 lbs. of SUGAR FOR EVERY PERSON IN OREGON

On February 5, the one-millionth bag of Oregon Sugar to be made this season in America's most modern sugar factory, at Nyssa, poured through a spout into a "White Satin" bag. By the first of March when the season's sugar-making campaign had ended, nearly 1,200,000 bags full of Oregon Sugar had been made. Had all this sugar remained here, it would have met all the 1946 sugar requirements of Oregon users . . . including housewives, canneries and other commercial consumers . . . or, to put it another way, there would have been available for Oregon users more than 100 pounds of sugar per capita!

Perhaps no factory in America did so well last year in amount of beet sugar made or in production increase over the year previous. Prospects for 1947 are even better, with an additional 15 per cent increase expected.

In quality, too, Oregon Sugar is unsurpassed. It meets every test for purity. Thousands of Northwestern merchants feature it, and tens of thousands of customers prefer it to all other brands.

Let's continue to make Oregon a great sugar state by using "Oregon's own and only sugar."
