

Rites Held at St. Joseph's

STAYTON — In wedding rites held in St. Joseph's Catholic church in Salem April 7, Miss Lorraine Maertz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maertz, route 2, Scio, became the bride of Herbert Schwarz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schwarz of Salem. The Rev. Father Bernard officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was white satin with a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was caught in a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with white roses and white satin streamers. Mrs. Louene Pietrok was her sister's matron of honor. Her gown was of pink satin and net and she carried pink roses and carnations. Miss Helen Giesler was bridesmaid and her gown was of blue taffeta and net. She carried a nosegay bouquet of roses and carnations.

George Pietrok was best man and Charles Green was usher. A reception was held at the Women's clubhouse in Stayton following the wedding. Mrs. Ross Clarke of Salem cut the cake. Mrs. Carl Limbeck poured coffee and the girls from the Salem telephone office, who worked with the bride, served. Also serving were Miss Cleo Limbeck, Mrs. Charles Green and Miss Rita Schwarz, sister of the groom. Mrs. Bernice Maertz, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Virginia Schwarz, sister of the groom, were in charge of the gift table. The guest book was passed by Misses Dolores Maertz and Cecilia Schwarz.

The bride has lived in this area all of her life and has been employed in Salem for the past two years. The groom, who is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy, served in the army two years, holding the rank of sergeant.

Dallas Man Weds In Vallejo

DALLAS — A wedding of interest to many Dallas friends was solemnized at the Ascension Episcopal church, Vallejo, Calif., March 29 when Mrs. Claire Schaffer Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaffer of Loma Vista, Calif., became the bride of John R. Allgood, Jr., son of John R. Allgood of Dallas. The Rev. Peter Boes read the service assisted by Chaplain David Todd Gillmar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a street length afternoon gown of champagne crepe. She wore a matching straw bandeau, in which pink camellias were arranged. She carried pink camellias.

Mrs. John Ellicott, bridesmaid for her sister wore pale rose crepe with full skirt and carried blue Dutch iris.

James Allgood stood with his brother as best man.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Schaffer chose a soft green crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Schaffer home.

After a week's trip, the couple will resume teaching in Woodland. Mrs. Allgood is a graduate of the San Jose State college and Mr. Allgood is a graduate of the Oregon State college. He served four years in the army.

Those from Dallas attending were: John R. Allgood, Sr., Miss Fannie Dempsey, aunt of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. James Allgood.

Installation has been set for April 23 at 8 p. m. jointly with the post. The refreshment committee included Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Lyle Brown and Mrs. Eastridge.

Campus Casual

Salem Students On Honor Roll

By Nancy Buren
OREGON STATE COLLEGE—(Special)—Last Sunday Oregon Students, back from spring vacation, attended a sunrise service on the campus, hunted eggs, and went to Easter breakfasts. Earlier in the week they heard the college glee club sing an Easter cantata.

Salem people on the honor roll for winter term's grades are John Rowell, Shirley Barber, William Welsh, Ramona Evans, LaVern Fowler, Margaret Moritz, Vernon Toney, David Minar and Janice Smith.

Beard growing started Monday for the sophomores Sadie Hawkins' day festivities April 23. All sophomore men must either grow beards or be thrown in the river. Prizes will be given for the blackest, reddest, longest, best-trimmed, scrawniest and most novel beards. A Lil' Abner and Daisie Mae will be chosen and a race between men and women representatives from the living groups will be featured on Sadie Hawkins' day.

This Friday night the sophs will give a show, "State Stations," which includes such skits as "If Men Played Cards Like Women." Among the entertainers will be Mary Lou McKay and Bobbie Meyers.

Show Honors Bride Elect

Miss Dorothy Rathjen, whose marriage to Abraham Patapoff will be an event of Sunday, was honored at a shower Tuesday night when Miss Macyle and Miss Maxine Woodruff entertained. The affair was held at the Wesley Goodrich home on North Summer street.

HOUSECLEANING

CAN BE EASY

Clara Jefferson USES THESE "SLICK-UP" TRICKS

Start on the bottom of doors and woodwork and work up. Then you'll have no hard-to-remove streaks from water running over soiled surfaces.

Use tissue paper to polish the glass in picture frames.

Wash your windows in four easy motions: With squeegee cover one pane in three, wide swipes. One vertical swipe will finish the job.

For scratches in your furniture, open a nut so oil in its meat can be rubbed into the scratched spots, then polish.
