

WOMEN'S SECTION

Adding her name to the list of brides-elect is Miss Margaret Hughlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hughlett, whose engagement to Edward A. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Peterson of Portland, has been revealed. The wedding is planned for August. (Kennell-Ellis).

Miss Lois Barrick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leon E. Barrick, whose marriage to John French, son of Mrs. Mabel French of Los Angeles, will be an event of June 17, the day following Miss Barrick's graduation from Pomona college. The nuptials will take place at the chapel on the campus. The couple will live in Claremont while he is completing his education at Pomona. (Jesten-Miller).

September bride will be Miss Harriet Hawkins, daughter of Mrs. Taylor Hawkins and Harry Hawkins of Portland, who revealed her engagement and wedding day to William S. Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Duncan of Silverton, at a fireside at the Kappa Alpha Theta house on the University of Oregon campus Wednesday night. (Kennell-Ellis).

Bride-elect Carola Hays, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Hayes of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently revealed her betrothal to David Minar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Minar of Salem. No wedding plans have been made. She is a senior at Willamette university and he is a junior at Oregon State college. (Bishop Moders).

Week's Calendar Filled with Many Social Events

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

The social agenda for the next few weeks is filled with social events. On Monday afternoon the Marion county community chairmen of the American Cancer society campaign will gather for a tea meeting at the South High street home of Mrs. Homer Smith, jr., at 2:30 o'clock. Information and instructions for the campaign will be discussed. Assisting Mrs. Smith are Mesdames Walter Spaulding, Walter Kirk, Preston Doughton, George Rhoten, Harold Rosebraugh and Miss Lenore Headley.

To Honor National President

Miss Louise Grace, Detroit, Mich., president of Zonta International, will be guest and speaker at the Salem Zonta club's dinner meeting Monday at 7 p. m. at Nohlgren's restaurant. Miss Grace arrives in Salem during the day, coming from Seattle where she is attending the district conference this weekend. The Monday dinner is informal. Mrs. Harry W. Scott and Mrs. R. W. Land are in charge of arrangements.

Among those from the Salem club attending the Seattle conference are Dr. Helen Pearce, past Zonta International president; Mrs. M. Theodore Madsen, jr., local club president; Mrs. C. W. Stacey, delegate from the Salem club; Mrs. Harry W. Scott, Mrs. R. W. Land, Miss Alene Phillips, Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Mrs. May Smith, Miss Gertrude Morgan and Dr. Lucille Fortner. Zontians from Eugene, Portland and Corvallis have been invited to attend the Monday meeting in Salem.

Five new members listed for the local club are Mrs. James G. Heltzel, Mrs. B. F. Lambert, Miss Mary Larson, Mrs. F. A. Massee, Miss Agnes J. Meyer.

Pi Phi Benefit Bridge Party

Active members of Pi Beta Phi at Willamette university will entertain with their annual bridge benefit tea Tuesday at the chapter house from 2 to 4:30 o'clock. Proceeds will go to the settlement school at Gatlinberg, Tenn. All mothers, alumnae, actives and friends are invited. Guests are to bring table accessories. Miss Betty Lou Edwards is chairman of the directorate, assisted by a group of freshmen.

Showers for Miss Rowland

A much-feted bride-elect is Miss Jean Rowland, who will be married April 19 to George E. Schroefer at St. Joseph's Catholic church. Mrs. Ralph Smith will entertain Tuesday night at her home on Norway street in honor of the bride-to-be. A kitchen shower will honor Miss Rowland after an informal evening. The hostess will serve a late supper. Honoring the bride-elect will be Mrs. B. W. Stacey, Mrs. George Schroeder of Roseville, L. I., New York, Mesdames Jack Bartelt, John Copenhaver, Ronald Runyan, Lloyd Griffiths, Douglas Parker, Harrison Wilder, Miss Patricia Sears, Miss Mary McKay and the hostess.

Wednesday night Mrs. Jack Woodfield is planning a pre-nuptial party for Miss Rowland and on Thursday night Miss Mary McKay will entertain with a bridal shower at her Royal Court apartment for the bride-to-be.

Town Club Dinner Dance

Stated for Saturday night is the Town club's last formal dinner dance of the season. The affair will be held in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel between 9 and 1 o'clock. James Booth and his orchestra from Oregon State college will play.

Invitations were in the mail this last week to a pre-dance party for which Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond will be hosts at the former's home on Park avenue between 7 and 9 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes will have as their out-of-town guests for the affair Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Deviers of Portland.

Easter Sunday bride was Mrs. Roy Remington, the former Palma Paulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Paulson of Dell Rapids, South Dakota. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Remington. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wood. The couple will live in Salem. (Jesten-Miller).

Miss Arden Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Shepard, who has announced her betrothal to Calvin E. Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Welch of Hubbard. The wedding is planned to take place in August. The news was told on the Oregon State college campus, where both are students.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry S. Anderson (Lois Dokken) pictured after their marriage on Easter Sunday at the Calvary Lutheran church in Silverton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Dokken of Salem and her husband's parents are the Glenn H. Andersons of Portland. The newlyweds will live in Salem. (Jesten-Miller).

Mrs. Roy W. Herr, the former Lorraine Jones, who was married April 11 at the Pratum Memorial church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jones and her husband is the son of Mrs. Ida Herr. After a honeymoon in California the couple will be at home in Salem. (Kennell-Ellis).

June Dates Are Set...

June, the ever popular month for weddings, will be no exception this year with several brides-elect already selecting their wedding days.

Miss Geraldine Nelson and Robert Jahnke are telling their friends they will be married on Saturday, June 14 at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Chester W. Hamblin will officiate at the 8 o'clock wedding with a reception following at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nelson. The couple's engagement was announced last August.

The benedict-elect is the son of Mrs. Myrtle Jahnke of Denver. Miss Nelson attended Willamette university and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Her fiance is attending the University of Colorado and they will live in Boulder.

A Home Wedding

Saturday, June 28 has been set as the date for the forthcoming marriage of Miss Maryann Wittliff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Wittliff of Astoria, to Hugh G. Lovell, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. Ivan Lovell of Salem. The nuptials will take place in Astoria at the home of the bride-elect's parents.

Miss Wittliff will graduate from Willamette university on June 15. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi. Mr. Lovell will receive his diploma from Pomona college on June 16.

Luncheon for Newcomer...

On the social slate for Thursday, April 24 is the one o'clock luncheon for which Mrs. Lewis D. Clark will be hostess at the Normandy Manor. The affair is being arranged in compliment to a newcomer in the capital, Mrs. Maynard C. Shiffer, who with Dr. Shiffer, has come here from Portland to reside. A large group of matrons have been invited to the bridge luncheon.