Senators Divide Twin Bill By With Vics--Win 18-3, Lose 12-7

by Al Lightner

Sunday sorties: What with Roseburg's Mel Ingram going there day, the Oregonians blasting out to coach football and Medford's Hank Anderson to herd the basket- an 18-3 decision in the afternoon ballers, three guesses where all the prep athletic material in southern Oregon will be next school years. . . Right the first try, Grants Pass . . . Thumbnail of Jack Wilson, Senator boss: An American leaguer forced to play National league brand ball. Jack would like to go for the big innings with scads of runs a la his alma mater, the Boston Red Sox. But he can't because he hasn't that type of ball club. Bunt and hope is Black Jack's only out-hope also that the parent Portlands will suddenly realize the Solons are playing in a Class B league, not D . . . But then Jack has company, for Buddy Ryan is in the same fix this secter at Wenatchee, And are the Wenatchee customers howling! . . . Bob Keuscher is stepping aside as Leslie's head coach, he says, but that we must see. B. Fcuscher without his finger in coaching of some sort-just wouldn't be B. Keuscher . . . Congratulations to Rex Kimmell & Co. for landing the state American Legion junior ball tourney for Waters park. Now if the village can only come up with a nine to win the thing . . . Congrats too to Tom Woods, maestro of the local B&B duckpin drome for his efforts to attract a Northwest duckpin tournament here the latter part of May. Tom hopes to bring in teams from Aberdeen, Tacoma, Montesano, Cannon Beach, Waldport and Independence, plus any others available for a big Saturday-Sunday pin-toppling party . . . Speaking of bowlers, the five Salem teams to head soon for Los Angeles and the ABC gigantic will be the last group to roll in the annual classic. At least they'll know what they have to beat when they start . . . Some Can, but Others Cannot

Sometimes we'd swear two and two add up to five. The sizzling Beavers when in spring training had a crop of youthful New York Yankee farmhands to pick over. They picked and sent the rest back. Jack Wilson wanted at least three of the culls for his Salems but was told that inasmuch as the Yanks had a farm club in the WIL in Victoria it would be illegal to send the players to Salem. They are now with Victoria. But on the other hand we have this: The Beavers are in cahoots with the Yankees who are in the same league with the Detroit Tigers. The Yankees have players on both the Beaver and Oakland clubs in the PCL and darned if it isn't legal for Detroit to send player George Vice on option to the same

Yankee Tieup has Bevos in Dither

It's only a guess, but we would say that the Beavers' tieup with the Yankees is instigating much of the local woe. Because of that pelationship, if the Yankees want certain players to go to certain clubs—for instance their own Victoria chattel—the Beavers salute and send said players to said club. Duane Crawford went to Denver, and Denver is another Yankee farm. 'Tis but a guess this, but if we're right and such maneuvers are to continue leaving the Senators as second choice for optionees, then the townies would be far better off were they home owned and out from under the Beaver wing. Those who pay their way through the Waters portals won't stand for double dealing and a losing ball club mothered even by the Portlands. And the Portlands can't stand it if the Waters customers won't support their expensive WIL investment.

Owen Completes Mat Card

Villager Tony (Well Driller) Ross won't rassle Alabama nasty Jimmy oLtt in Tuesday night's mainer at the armory after all. In fact Lott won't be bulging his biceps in the Northwest circuit at all from here in. Matchmaker Elton Owen announced last night that Lott has departed from the circuit, by request. The burly meanle got gay with the mat maestro, insisted he wouldn't meet Anthony again after beating him last week and was because of this recipient of a sudden and definite suspension throughout the northwest. So it will be Ross against Canadian Herb Parks in the Tuesday mainer, which should be a sizeable session in itself. If it isn't, Matchmaker Owen with a 1-won, 6-lost record for their first road trip. The night kept Salem from climbing into fifth place in the standings.

In the first game the bludgeons carried by Ben Gregory and Bill Beard spoke loudly and consistently to lead the way and give Portsider Kenny Wyatt his second straight victory. Gregory had a 4-for-5 day, including a homer and triple, and belted in six runs. It was a grand day for the big freshman. Beard boomed out a perfect 5-for-5, all singles. Skipper Wilson inserted nearly all his reserves and in his only time at bat Dick Gentzkow singled to help bring the total of Solon bingles to 20 for the afternoon. Even Vic. Manager Ted Norbert tried the mound in this one, he being the Athletics' fifth pitcher. Salem scored eleven runs in a wierd
