

Senators Hand Victoria Line Series-Knotting Win, 9 to 4

DERBY DANDY: One of the hotter favorites in Saturday's Kentucky Derby at Louisville is Faultless (above) with jockey Doug Dodson aboard. Faultless is the famed Calumet Farms' hope in the 1947 classic.

Cupboard Cafe Takes Major Bowling Crown

Sparked by 600 series by Henderson and Valdez, the Cupboard Cafe trundling quintet walked off with the Major League bowling title at Capitol Alleys last night, whipping Colonial House in the three game play-off series, 2918 pins to 2773. Valdez chalked up a 627 set with games of 209, 190 and 228. Henderson hit 605.

Cupboard Cafe		Colonial House
Henderson	191 202 212-605	Boyer	187 181 174-542
Valdez	278 198 173-653	Garbarino	208 198 173-579
McCurdy	182 149 194-525	Some	168 199 199-566
Coe	209 156 178-544	Mirch	156 133 203-492
Glodd	165 146 158-509	Murdock	156 205 182-543
TOTALS	992 879 1047 2918	TOTALS	882 913 978 2773

OREGONIANS IN MAJORS
Gordon, Indians, rained out.
No other Oregonians played in scheduled games (Doerr hit on elbow in practice, out of game).

Rollin' Along

By JERRY STONE

Painfully surprised: Those customers who arrived late for last Sunday's double-header between Portland and Los Angeles, paid a buck plus two-bits for a left field grandstand seat, only to find themselves conducted to temporary bleachers inside the center patch wall. At first impression you'd thought of Vaughn street was crammed as tight as a canful of sardines what with the several hundred fans parked on the outfield turf—but, ironically enough, later figures disclosed only 10,000 plus in the park. You'd call that being prepared for exigencies, eh what? And don't think it wasn't hard on the Angel and Beaver choppers, being subjected as they were to the fate of having rambunctious kids grabbing balls from the gardeners and having lady sky shoots dropping in the crowd for doh! With Spud Chandler proving a disappointment, even at the time there were seats aplenty for the "overflow" . . . We lapped Tommy Bridges' much-ballyhooped curve from a center field vantage point, if such can be called a vantage point, and became a convert to the ooh-and-ah brigade as concerns the Bridges ability to bend a ball. The explosive break of his stock-in-trade was very apparent, even from such a distance. Tommy leaped to the wild side, though, Sunday . . .

Effortless performer: Max Marshall, the 35 year old Angel left fielder down from the Cincinnati Reds. Flashiness isn't a part of Marshall but watch 'im play left field some time. And watch 'im hit. Just singles Sunday but no wasted motion. The first swing and there was a smoking liner into right—and Max did it just about every time . . . Frantic about like a young colt on first base for the Jim Turner crew was George Vico, fresh down from Detroit. "Yeah" is, to use a hackneyed phrase, a guy who obviously eats and sleeps the game. And that celebrated split of his saved one double-play Sunday . . .

Jensen Comer
Vern Gilmore, Salem high's track maestro, believes Vik Sprinzer Jim Jensen, has quite a future ahead of him. "Jim's got the facility of getting the jump on the field at the gun," says Vern, "and that's unusual considering his inexperience" . . . Gents, at long last the worm is turning. Note this from the Sporting News by one Dan Daniel: "With Spud Chandler proving a disappointment, Floyd Bevens can assume leadership of the Yankee hurling staff on the strength of his opening three-hitter against the Athletics and his 16 and 13 record last year—six of the losses being by one run" . . . Let it be a lesson: Max Lanier, one-time Cardinal southpaw who succumbed to the lure of Mexican league "dollars", applied the other day for a job with a Cleveland semi-pro club and was turned down. All that glitters is not gold, Max should know—Now!

Baseball's BIG SIX

We can readily sympathize with Jack Brande and the predicament which confronted him in his losing match with fast-moving Jim Sheldon last week in the Elks tourney. Jack, in one of those moments all golfers eventually meet up with, knocked the head off his putter with a well-directed kick after watching his putts wind up every place but in the cup. He struggled through the next few holes with a taped up and most loose-jointed putter. But then don't think we're taking anything away from Sheldon for this kid is developing into a very hot competitor . . . Long hole dueling: Jim Lengren must have figured, "what's the use" as he bowed to sharp Jack Russell in the quarter-finals of the big links show. On the par 5, No. 1 Glen birdied and so did Jack. Lengren also birdied the par 5 No. 7 and what did Jack do but drop a 45 foot putt for an eagle. Glen followed with a bird on the long No. 14 and, yep, there was Russell abanin' him with an identical effort . . .

Mossor Victim In Debut Try

Gunnarson to Face Norbert Club Tonite

By Al Lightner
Tuesday night the Victoria 'A's were in a generous mood and practically handed the Norbert Club Senators an 8 to 4 series opening win. Last night the Solons reciprocated in full, plattering up a 9 to 4 nod for the enemy, knotting the WIL series and setting the scenery for the payoff tilt tonight at eight o'clock. Lefty Carl Gunnarson, the Mgr. Jack Wilson's hill choice for the evening's fare and will be seeking his initial victory of the campaign.

The scenery was on the dripping side last night, but 511 hardy souls were present for what turned out to be a dismal session. Lefty Wandell Moller making his debut with the Wilsons gave the gathering six innings of the kind of pitching for which he is noted, but the pert portlander from Huntington, W. Va., simply couldn't do it all by himself. His new mates were defensively at their worst for the season and kicked in with six errors, the same number donated by the Vics Tuesday, and allowed seven of the nine enemy runs to cross unearned. Not accustomed to doing more than getting sleepy on the parent Portland Beaver bench, Mossor tumbled in the seventh and eighth, lost his snappy stuff and finally yielded to Reliefie Dick O'Boyle.

But before he left, Mossor exhibited good reason to believe he will take a big chunk of the pitching woes off Skipper Wilson's shoulders. Lefty still is quick as an ever was and has that darting curve. He became frequently wild with both in his inaugural, but should overcome that with additional work.

The Vics started off gleefully in the opening panel by scoring two runs on the first two Salem errors, a walk and a bloop double into right by Babe Jensen. From here on until the seventh, when three more tallies came in, all earned — Mossor hurled one-hit ball and whiffed six. An assortment of two walks in the seventh, one with the bases loaded, a double error by Bud Peterson on a double play roller and singles by Bill White and Leo Reghetti netted the three runs.

Mossor left sans an out in the eighth when he walked Jensen, erred him to third and dished up another single to White. Dick O'Boyle took over from here and gave up one more run in the ninth, this one earned.

The Solons got to youthful right-hander Dick Mitchell for three runs in the third on Mossor's line double into right, an infield out Marty Krug's solo to center, a sacrifice, walk, wild pitch and Ben Gregory's loft to center. But other than for a single center in the seventh on Krug's double, Lou Kubnik's single and Hal Summerville's grob, the locals managed little with Mitchell's stuff. He was in trouble often and at times serious enough that Mgr. Ted Norbert looked longingly to the bull pen. But Mitchell stayed. He was helped from holes on two occasions by double plays, in the seventh and eighth.

Victoria's eight-hit attack was led by 6-foot-5-inch Outfielder White who had three singles. Salem, with seven mostly scattered bingles off Mitchell, had Krug, Peterson and Mossor with a pair apiece, one of Mossor's a fluke bunt on which the Vic third-sacker slipped and fell. A notoriously wet hitter, the two bingles probably were more than Lefty Wandell has got in one game in his life.

One more Solon player was cut yesterday — reserve first sacker Jim Wert who has been sent to Bisbee in the Arizona-Texas loop on option.
Adding more woe for the session, it was the first home loss of the semester for the Salems and for Al Spaer it was the first game of the season in which he has gone hitless. He had a string of 12.

TITLE SEEKER: Veteran Walt (Junior) Cline, winner of many Salem golf tournaments, is currently in the semifinals of the Elks sponsored Mid-Willamette Valley open. Cline meets Bunny Bennett this week, while Jack Russell plays Jimmy Sheldon.

Caplanos Nab Ninth Straight

By the Associated Press
Vancouver's high-flying Caplanos, roaring along toward the top of the Western International league standings, racked up their ninth straight win last night as they nosed the hapless Wenatchee Chiefs, 5-4, at Wenatchee. It was the Chiefs' 12th loss in 13 starts. Hall and Snyder combined to hold the Wenatchees to eight hits, while the Caps were belting Frost for 14.

At Spokane the Indians tightened their grip on first place, one-half game up on the Vancouverians—as they trimmed Brenton, 5-3, with Stevenson getting the better of a hurling duel with the Brems' Hub Kittle. The Tacoma Tigers climbed into fifth place with an 11-9 triumph over the seventh-spot Yakima Stars. The Tigers walloped three Star twirlers for 16 runs.

Yakima 000 120-8 3 14
Wenatchee 110 100-4 8 3
Hall, Snyder (8) and Stumph; Frost and Sady.

Tacoma 004 220 102-11 16 4
Yakima 020 002 001-9 9 2
Greenlaw, Chetkovich (8) and Kuper; Bryach, Strait (4), Knudson (9) and Kerr.

Bremerton 100 002 003-3 7 4
Spokane 000 111 002-5 11 2
Kittle and Ronning; Stevenson and Buffal.

Seattle 003 000 000-3 3 2
Los Angeles 003 002 011-11 16 2
Fedel, Rippie (7), Pearson (5) and Hill; Chambers and Malone.

Oakland 000 000 401-5 10 0
Sacramento 010 010 200-4 8 2
Speer, Howard (7), Hasey (7) and Kearse; Rainaldi (7), Mason, Harrell (7), Cronin (8), Smith (9) and Fitzgerald.

Hollywood 000 212 120-9 18 3
San Diego 001 015 003-10 18 1
Kirkukakis, Greenlee, Doster (9) and Shely; Triner, Dumler (5), Eisenmann (6), Truchel (6), Fortier (7), Kennedy (8) and Kerr.

The Standings

Team	W	L	Pct.
Spokane	9	3	.750
Vancouver	9	4	.692
Bremerton	8	5	.615
Victoria	8	6	.571
Tacoma	8	7	.538
Seattle	7	7	.500
Los Angeles	7	7	.500
Portland	6	7	.462
San Diego	6	8	.430
Hollywood	5	10	.333
Sacramento	4	10	.286
Oakland	4	11	.269
San Francisco	3	11	.217
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	.500
San Francisco 2	11	11	.500
Portland 2	11	11	.500
San Diego 2	11	11	.500
Hollywood 2	11	11	.500
Sacramento 2	11	11	.500
Oakland 2	11	11	