Miss Hamre Engaged

Announcement is being made of the engagement of Miss Elaine Hamre of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gladwin P. Hamre of Silverton, to Robert L. Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Fry of Silverton, formerly of Grants Pass. The wedding is planned for August. The news was first told at a party Monday night at the Hamre home in honor of the bride-elect's eighteenth birthday.

Miss Hamre is a graduate of Silverton high school and is employed here at the public utilities commission. Her fiance served in the navy during the war and attended Oregon State college. He will continue his education in the fall.

Miss Bear Weds James Manning

GERVAIS—St. Luke's Catholic church in Woodburn was the scene May 1 of the wedding of Miss Anita Bear, daughter of Frank Bear of Woodburn as she became the bride of James Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning of Gervais. Rev. Father Mollenbier performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a white satin dress made with long sleeves, pearl beaded yoke and short train, finger tip length veil with mother of pearl cap. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Miss Clara Bear, sister of the bride and Miss Clara Manning, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids and wore identical dresses of pale blue marquisette and satin. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Dennis Manning was best man for his brother and Arnold Bear was the other attendant. LeRoy Gardner and Charles LeBru were ushers.

A wedding breakfast for the wedding party was held at the Bear home. A reception was held from 1 to 3 o'clock in St. Luke's hall, Woodburn, and a dance was given in the K.C. hall in St. Paul in the evening.

The young couple left for a two weeks trip to Canada. They will reside on a farm in the Parkersville district.

Mrs. Tracy Johnson, director of the round table at Oregon State college, will be the guest speaker at the mother-daughter banquet at the First Christian church Friday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Guests Are Bidden to Parties

Several informal parties are on the social agenda this week.

Mrs. Conrad Paulson will entertain informally Saturday night at her Court street home in honor of her husband on his birthday. Guests have been invited to a supper with an informal evening following.

Mrs. Hugh Taylor was hostess for an informal luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her Court street home for the pleasure of her house guest, Mrs. David Williams of Seattle, who is here visiting a few days. Covers were placed for eight with contract bridge following.

Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst has invited a group of her friends to a dessert bridge tonight at her North Summer street home.

Guests will be Mesdames Coburn, Grabenhorst, Robert Burrell, Hal Halvorson, George A. Arnbuckle, Asa Lewelling, Richard and Douglas Chambers, Rolland Mesereau, John Steelhammer, Robert Barnett, Charles Barclay, Dale Shepherd, Oscar Specht, Robert Brownell, George Grabenhorst, jr., and Miss Jean Taylor.

Convention in Albany Soon

The recreation meeting of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club will be held at the chamber of commerce rooms, at eight o'clock Friday. LuVerne Hardwicke is in charge of arrangements. The program will be a round-table play presented by the drama club under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Versteeg. A social hour will follow.

Delegates to the Business and Professional Women's state convention at Albany, May 16, 17 and 18 are to include: Carmalite Weddle, second state vice-president; Jessie Bush Mickelsen, state music chairman; and Marion Lowry Fischer, publicity and news service and delegates from Salem club: Marion Wooden, Ida Mae Smith, Ruth Versteeg, Betty Eloffson, Zula Van Gilder, Eleanor Roberts and Mathilda Gilles. The Salem BPW Chorus will present a group of songs at the Friday night banquet, in honor of the visiting national president, Mrs. Sally Butler, and will join other choruses in a massed chorus Saturday night.

Mothers Feted At Breakfast

Members of the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club entertained at Nohlgren's Tuesday with their annual Mother's day breakfast. Mrs. Ethel Gallinger presided. Josephine McGee sang accompanied by Jean Hobson Rich. Members of the club introduced their mothers or guests.
